

The True War

“WARS END WHEN CONTROL IS ACHIEVED, MENTAL WARS PERSIST BECAUSE CONTROL IS A LIE.”

- BILAL FAYAD

Act 1

The Art of War

Miracuro and Eli...

Ob and The Gray Team...

Marthon...

All are standing behind him well prepared, nervous and focused, breathing hardly because of exhaustion, red and blue blood is everywhere, the red blood's source is the dominarians, scratches and bruises are everywhere on their bodies while the blue blood is coming out of blue slaughtered strange looking creatures

A BROKEN WARRIOR, COVERED IN ENEMIES'
BRIGHT CRYSTAL ARMOR, BRILLIANT BECAUSE HE
USED HIS MENTAL ILLNESS TO HIS ADVANTAGE,
BUT DIDN'T KNOW THAT THE INFECTION IS
SPREADING AND SOMEDAY, THE BOMB WILL
EXPLODE BURNING HIMSELF FROM THE INSIDE.

The warrior decides to escape; he cannot face his brothers after what happened

The warrior vanishes in a flash of an eye

Marthon as he flies towards him: “WAIT!”

Miracuro flies and catches Marthon with his hand and says: “Let him take his moment, they must’ve broken something inside of him, he’ll come back”

Marthon pulls his hand and flies back to the ground

Sounds of emergency is all over Telisrya

Miracuro looks out of the broken wall and sees a huge army of telisryans along with their big blue monsters

All are under the building launching their weapons towards them

Miracuro shouts: “THEY FOUND US, RUN!!”

Before everything...

Miracuro: “I had a dream”

Another place...

Ob: “I saw their jets surrounding Dominara”

Another place

Drova: “It was a nightmare I guess”

Miracuro: “because for the first time”

Miracuro, Ob and Drova: “I was afraid”

Later...

In a miserable house, there lies The Gray Team

Their speedster is knocking on a door and says: “Are you planning on staying in all day?”

A sound from the inside: “GO AWAY!”

Ob looks through the window when a blue light hits his face, he says: “Guys?”

Later...

Drova is sitting on a chair in a big building, he’s scratching his left forearm hardly, so he starts bleeding when suddenly, the color of the sky turns blue, millions of blue planes and jets fully designed with crystals and metals are approaching Dominara

The whole planet went in a state of panic

The dominarian warriors flies up and high towards them preparing for battle

Some jets form a square and then a hologram screen starts in between them, displaying an alien, colored blue, skinny and with no hair

The other jets opened big doors above them that showed off a big dark plate with lights on it, looking like they were transmitting signals using them

The alien: “People of Dominara, we are Telisrya, this is not a warning. Our forces are crossing your borders as this message is delivered. Your defenses will fall, your command will fracture, and your empire will be taken. Resistance will only decide how much is left when we are done, you have one day to surrender, if not, we will take you down by force”

At the beginning...

Three dominarian ships are heading towards fog from different directions

Ship 1...

Miracuro: “Status?”

Eli: “I don’t know, it looks foggy”

Ship 2...

Marthon and Drova in it

Drova: “It is supposed to be there”

Ship 3...

Ob and the Gray team in it

The pilot: “Nothing is visible yet”

The three ships are finally out of this fog, and they are fascinated by the beautiful cyan light

Miracuro’s eyes glow because of the reflection

The Gray team open their mouths from the shock of the planet's beauty

Marthon: "You've got to see that"

Drova walks to the window and closes it preventing the light from crawling in the ship

Drova: "WE ARE NOT HERE TO CONTEMPLATE IT; WE ARE HERE TO KILL IT; I LEFT MY PEOPLE AT HOME TO COME HERE, DON'T FORGET, THEY'RE THE ENEMIES"

The ships stop...

At ship 1...

Eli throws a suit at Miracuro

Miracuro catches it and says: "What is that?"

Eli: "It's a suit that enhances your speed and your agility"

Miracuro throws the suit away as he says: "I don't need it"

At ship 2...

Drova: "And what's the use of it?"

Marthon: "It lets you control the deflection force and move it in any direction you want"

Drova tears the suit in half

At ship 3...

All the Gray team are wearing their suits except for Ob

Their speedster: “Ob, wear the suit we don’t have much time”

Ob: “No, thanks”

The 3 teams are ready to move, they leave the ship with worries about their home world

Three separate teams are sent to the enemies’ home for an unknown mission

Dominara needs every person and every hand, every finger they could afford right now...

On Dominara...

The ships surround the planet, and the streets are filled with dominarians who look nervous and move quickly

Screams are everywhere

Random dominarians fly crazily around the buildings

In the Super council of Dominara...

A dominarian: “Sir, everybody is going crazy, the people are behaving strange ever since the ships of Telisrya entered the planet’s atmosphere, I don’t know I kind of feel weird as well”

The dominarian responds: “Why is that?”

Master Gru: “It is the Telisryan ships”

The dominarian: “How so?”

Master Gru: “Notice the other ships with the plates?”

The dominarian: “Yes”

Master Gru: “The dominarian archives has records of war that was fought centuries ago, this war was versus a planet called ‘Taliaia’”

Master Gru opens a bag and picks up a book out of it then he puts it on the table

It was weird old and ancient book

Master Gru opens it on a specific page and starts reading: “

I. The Chronicle of the Grey Sundering

When the stars were yet pliant to our wills, there rose from the black a sister-world named Talicia, cunning as a dream and venomous as a whisper. Their craft was not of iron nor of flame, but of mind: subtle dominion that bent thought and rent resolve. They sowed doubt like seed, and for a season many a stout heart faltered beneath unseen hands.

II. The Reckoning of Flesh and Storm

We, the children of Dominara , born to wing and tempest, to swiftness beyond comet and to armoured sinew that cleaved the heavens , took up the mantle of judgment. The wages of that hour were dire. Cities bled; plains ran crimson as if the very soil had taken up its heart. The air was thick with the lamentation of kin and the iron reek of ruin. None who beheld that carnage could call it anything but a falling of the world.

III. The Art of War and the Curbing of Thought

Against Talicia's dominion of mind we wrought defiance of another kind: bulwarks of will, disciplines honed until thought itself became armour. Our flyers loosed the winds; our swift ones struck like lightning; our deflectors turned beguiling wiles to ash; our strength rent the banners of illusion. Thus was the mind's snare unmade, not by subtlety alone, but by the unbending force of those who would not be unmade.

IV. The Covenant of Silence

When the last echo of battle faded, there rose a stillness more terrible than any trumpet. Out of that silence we forged peace: not a peace of forgetting, but a peace of binding, oaths cast in blood and sealed in stone. From that hour the name Talicia was whispered no more in halls of power. Their echoes were chased to the dark, and there they were not found; and in the years that followed, Talicia's spoor was as a ghost's imprint upon the void.

V. A Testament for the Ages

Let this be inscribed for those yet to come: that might without mercy is folly; that cunning without counter is peril; that the worst of wars is when the self is stolen; and that true dominion is the keeping of one's own mind. We conquered not for lust of slaughter, but to preserve the right of thought and the sanctity of sky. Ever since that awful sundering, Talicia hath not been found among the spheres , whether by ruin, by flight, or by some fate older than our reckoning, the Ledger keeps silent and the stars keep their secret.

So, it stands, scrawled in shadow and tempered with thunder: Dominara remembers. Dominara guards. Dominara moves , swift as the storm, sure as the stone.”

As Master Gru finishes the words he read from the book, he looks at the dominarian masters and sees the shock on their faces, the features of nervousness

The master: “Do you think that they disappeared for centuries just cooking for us a big plan?”

Master Gru: “I think they kept teaching their children about Dominara the conquerors, the true enemies, they kept feeding them our hatred and forced them to work every day, to seek greatness just to serve their cause and have a fake name of heroic, Talicia disappeared and came back as Telisrya, the force that uses mind against muscles, they are now planting fear in our people's deep mind weakening them slowly”

The Dominarian master: “Prepare the ships and the weapons, let there be war”

At Telisrya...

The three teams surrounded Telisrya from every corner and then they attempted to land at Telisrya

As they were landing...

They see Telisrya clearly

A cyan world, its buildings are made of light and crystals

Shiny planes are flying in the bright sky

On Dominara...

Big jets and soldiers are on the move now...

A Telisryan unit moves towards them

The jets fly and prepare missiles

The telisryan planes shot blue Lasers at the dominarian jets

All the ships are destroyed except for one that survived

In the council...

The dominarian: “Are you sure of this pilot?”

Master Gru: “Zex is one of the most highly trained pilots I ever saw, don’t worry, I trust him”

Zex approaches the unit and quickly launches the missiles he had at them creating a huge amount of smoke in the sky destroying half the unit while redirecting the jet towards the other

Zex: “Attempting to leave...”

He presses a button on the screen

The screen then displays: “Self-destruct in 3...2”

Zex pulls a hand under the seat that pushes him out of the jet

The screen: “1”

Leaving the jet crash into the other part of the unit

Zex flies hiding in the smoke towards the main jet of Telisrya

Zex: “Approaching the mother ship, waiting for distraction...”

In the control room

Control: “Upcoming distraction, over”

The ground opens doors

In the Telisryan ship...

A Telisryan guard: “A suicide mission”

The Telisryan leader: “No it wasn’t”

And small drones flew out of the ground base headed towards the mother ship

The drones keep flying around the ship and shoot at it like flies

Zex is flying there waiting for the right moment

Zex: “Come on, come on, come on, come on”

The telisryan leader: “C2, Dash through that smoke”

A Telisryan ship dashes through the smoke that Zex is hiding at

The smoke disappears, revealing Zex

All the Telisryan ships now see Zex

At the same time, the mother ship lets out its guns shooting the drones

Control: “Fall back Zex, you’ve been compromised”

Zex looks at the mother ship and then looks back at the council’s building

A hard choice between hearing the orders or doing what you think is right

Zex sweats and tears run out of his eyes as he dashes as fast as he can towards the mother ship

Control: “FALL BACK ZEX, THAT’S AN ORDER!”

The Telisryan ships shoot Lasers at Zex as he’s approaching the mother ship of Telisrya

Master Gru: “What the hell is he doing?!”

Zex is hardly dodging

As he's about to reach the mother ship a Lazer hits him on his back

Zex loses consciousness and falls towards the mother ship

His body smashes into a drone then at the weapon of the mother ship and then smashes again into the structure of the ship then he hardly falls inside the mother ship completely unconscious

Control: "ZEX! ZEX!!"

At Telisrya...

Control: "Three teams, three main core locations to obtain, launch at them, champions!"

Team 3...

Their leader: "I don't exactly understand, why are we here instead of fighting with them at home?"

Team 1...

Miracuro: "There's a percentage of Dominara's failure, they have been preparing for this fight for centuries"

Team 3...

Ob: "our presence here gives us the upper hand that in case of losing at home, we can bargain with them, it's not weakness"

Team 2...

Drova: "IT'S THE ART OF WAR COMING FROM FEAR"

Team 1...

Eli: "Approaching the base..."

Eli and Miracuro are floating around a building observing it

The building is dark, different from the other building surrounding it

The glass is dark, hiding what's inside

Telisryan guards holding weapons are everywhere around this base

Right next to it, there was a big dark locked cage

Eli: "What is this?"

Miracuro: "A prison maybe, doesn't matter, let's move on, control?"

Control: "Miracuro, this is the communications building, you'll need to strike first and cut off any communications between the Telisryan ships and their home, giving us the chance attack"

The control broadcasts to the 3 teams and says: "As planned, team 1 will strike first, team 2 will wait until team 1 gives the green light to continue, team 2 and team 3, stay hidden as much time as you can, don't expose yourselves, this would risk the whole mission"

Control continues: "Miracuro and Eli, good luck"

Miracuro: “I want you to remember our plan, I will attack and you watch out for any remaining before they report”

Eli: “Done”

Miracuro: “And keep your eyes at this cage, we don’t know what’s in there yet”

Team 2...

Drova: “We’ve never got to know each other”

Marthon: “My name is Marthon”

Drova: “And??”

Marthon: “What do you want to know?”

Drova: “I don’t know, maybe more information?”

Marthon: “I’m a pilot, and you?”

Drova: “Like you don’t know me?”

Marthon: “I do, you’re that deflector everyone talks about for the last few months, the one who escaped the chaos”

Drova: “Not ‘escaped’ I destroyed the chaos all by myself”

Marthon: “So, you’re just in love with yourself? What does that make you? Let’s see what you will perform here”

A plane passes by, but they avoid it by deepening into the clouds

At Dominara...

In the mother ship...

Zex starts to wake up while feeling dizzy and not able to open his eyes, he hardly hears: “Zex, Zex, please respond, ZEX!”

Zex: “UHH, yeah”

Control: “ZEX, You’re alive!”

Zex: “I guess so”

Control: “You disobeyed the orders, which is a crime you will later be punished at”

Zex: “Is that what I need to hear from you now?”

Control: “Since you threw yourself to your hell, then you are supposed to be left to die in there, but we can’t expose our information in your knowledge”

Zex gets up

Zex: “Yeah, yeah, thank you, what now?”

Control: “Tell us what you see”

Zex opens his eyes hardly and starts describing: “I am in the Lazer shooter’s room, nothing here but a door, shall I attempt to leave?”

Control: “Like you listen to the orders now?”

Zex: “For fuck sack, can’t we focus on our mission here?”

Control: “The leader is most likely in there somewhere, find him and contact us, try to remain undetected”

Zex sarcastically: “Thanks for the help”

Zex opens the door and attempts to leave but he is surprised by seeing multiple Telisryans on the other side of the door

Zex: “Hi”

The Telisryans takes out their guns and someone shouts:
“THERE’S A DOMINRAIAN IN THE SHIP!!!”

Zex: “I’ve been caught this quick?”

Zex flexes his muscles and gets ready for a big fight

Team 1...

The building is in a square-shaped area

Miracuro lands on the ground and prepares for a sprint

On the other hand, Eli is floating waiting for Miracuro’s move

Miracuro looks at Eli stating that he’s ready

A line of Telisryan guards in the middle

Miracuro sprints towards the Telisryan guards’ as he grabs them all by their necks killing them instantly

Then at the end of the line, he stops leaving the bodies fly away towards Eli who holds the bodies and throws them at the ground

Miracuro does the same with the second line, having Eli above him catch the bodies that Miracuro sends out flying in the air

Blue blood is everywhere around the building as Miracuro and Eli finish whipping the guards off from around the building

Miracuro and Eli look at each other as confirmation of entering the building

Miracuro jumps above the wall and lands between two Telisryan guards' group

Miracuro marches towards a group, having his right-hand tears through a guard's head leaving from the other part

In the same second, Eli lands roughly on the ground between the other group having them fly off the ground

Miracuro kicks a guard at his chin throwing him into the air and Eli catches him and puts him under his legs, then lands hardly smashing him

A telisryan guard shows up and shouts as he's raising his gun: "HEY!"

Miracuro shapes his hand as a sword and then pierces through the last Telisryan's neck

Miracuro looks at Eli who's holding the telisryan guard who saw him and snapping his neck

Miracuro: "I like you"

Eli: "Let's enter"

Miracuro was about to take a step when suddenly he saw something strange, everything turned dark

Miracuro felt very angry

He sees himself in Dominara, but everything seems... destroyed, the vision is kind of blurred that he can't see good

He sees his hand pierced through a shadow-shaped person

Miracuro hardly takes his breath

Suddenly, he wakes up on Eli taps on his shoulder and says: "Buddy, are you alright?! Miracuro!!"

Miracuro wakes up from this vision and looks at Eli, takes his breath and whips his sweat and says: "I'm fine, let's go"

At the council of Dominara...

Master Gru: "We need to take this fight away from the planet, so that we can get the chance to attack, right now we can't fully charge an attack towards them"

The dominarian master: "What's Zex's status?"

Master Gru: "Zex? Sir, Zex disobeyed the rules"

The dominarian master angrily: "WHAT'S HIS STATUS?"

Master Gru: "Control, how's Zex?"

Control: "He's alive, and he is in the mother ship"

Master Gru: “What’s he doing?”

Control: “In a mission of capturing the leader of the attack”

Master Gru looks at the leader and says: “He’s in the mother ship, and is attempting to capture the leader”

The master: “Didn’t you say that you trusted Zex?”

Master Gru: “I did”

The master: “You said he disobeyed the orders and now you are giving him another task? Does he know that he must be punished for this? Do YOU know the consequences or not, Gru?”

Master Gru: “Uh, Uhh...”

The master: “I don’t want to see you here, get out”

Master Gru: “But sir”

The master: “Gru, you did the action and its opposite, so I clearly cannot predict how your thinking works, so please leave this council”

Master Gru stands up and leaves the room

As he left it, he says: “Control, connect me to Zex”

Zex: “MASTER?”

Master Gru hears gunshots and noise coming from Zex’s comms

Master Gru: “What’s happening, Zex? What’s that noise?”

At the mother ship...

Zex slaps a telisryan guard breaking off his neck and says: "I'VE BEEN COMPROMISED, MASTER"

A guard shoots Zex in the leg and Zex sits on the ground

The guard shoots Zex again in the face but he blocks the Lazer with the palm of his hand

Master Gru: "WHAT!?"

Zex: "DON'T WORRY, I'VE GOT THIS!"

Zex breaks a metallic tube on the wall and jumps in the air then dashes through a telisryan and smashes his head with the tube killing him instantly

Then he dashes towards the other and hits him with the tube between his legs

The telisryan crouches from pain and Zex hits him in his forehead with it then throws the tube in the chest of the last Telisryan

Zex sat on his knees taking his breath and says: "These guys are so fragile" when suddenly, the cyan lights are switched to red, and the sounds of emergencies are everywhere

Zex sees groups of telisryan soldiers running towards the right, they don't see him, they are not in an emergency because of him

Something else happened...

Minutes before...

Team 2...

Drova: "Fuck it, let's attack now"

Marthon: "What the hell, Team 1 didn't yet give the green light"

Drova: "I DO NOT CARE, my lungs here are fraught with fog!"

Drova is attempting to fly towards their desired building when Marthon grabs him with his hand

Drova looks at Marthon's hand angrily and says: "Leave me"

Marthon doesn't leave his hand

Drova charges his fist and says: "I SAID..."

A huge spot light is positioned at them

A loud sound stating: "Dominarians spotted"

Drova and Marthon look at each other

Drova: "That wasn't me"

Team 1...

Eli flies next to the building while Miracuro is standing in front of the main door

Miracuro: "Ready?"

Eli: "Ready"

Miracuro: "Let's march"

Miracuro kicks the door breaking it off

Eli tears through the building and sees confused and scared telisryans

A speaker next to the Telisryans stating: “Dominarians spotted, Dominarians spotted, Dominarians spotted”

A telisryan stretches his hand to a button, Eli speeds towards him to stop him from pressing it

But he was a milli second late...

The telisryan pushed the button right before Eli pierced through him flipping off the WHOLE situation at the dominarians

That’s when the cyan lights switched red on the mother ship where Zex was

Miracuro shouts as he’s in the middle of a fight: “WHAT HAPPENED, ELI?”

Eli responds as he’s in the same condition as Miracuro: “IT’S EITHER US OR ANOTHER TEAM IS COMPROMISED”

Miracuro pushes the telisryans around him away and starts speeding randomly hitting all of them and shattering their bones

At the mother ship...

Master Gru: “Zex, what’s happening? Why are all the lights red on the mother ship? Is it you? Did they grab a hold on you?”

Zex: “Uhh, no sir, it’s not me, it’s something else, I can’t find out what is it right now but I’m working on it”

Team 1...

Miracuro: “Master Gru, we failed, we shut down the whole building, but one last message was sent stating that they spotted dominarians, we don’t know if it’s us or another team”

At Dominara...

Master Gru: “ALL THE TEAMS, PLEASE REPORT!”

Team 3: “We are here, over”

Zex: “I’m here, over”

Miracuro: “We are here, over”

Master Gru: “Team 2? Drova?”

Team 2...

Drova and Marthon are flying at the speed of a bullet on telisryan, escaping the big crowd of telisryan soldiers running after them

Lazer shots are passing by them like rain

Drova hears distorted from his comms Master Gru says: “eam 2? Ova?”

Drova: “YES, I CAN HEAR YOU, MASTER GRU”

Master Gru: “What’s that sound around you”

Marthon: “WE WERE COMPROMISED!”

Team 3...

The Gray team leader: “Team two has been found!”

Act 2

Self-chaos

The dominarian master: “What were you thinking off when sending THREE teams into Telisrya?”

Master Gru: “You’ve seen that they’ve been preparing for this war before we were even born, all of the chances were with them and every percentage states that they will take over Dominara, I thought that when we send troops to them, we might get the upper hand”

The dominarian master: “Good, but now your troops are compromised, so is your big brain able to THINK about any other solution?”

Master Gru thinks for seconds and responds: “I say that they now know that our troops are in Telisrya and they are IN danger and also there’s no contact since the building was destroyed, so they are nervous now and they have two options, they will either abort or continue their mission and most likely, they will abort, Zex is inside their mother ship, I won’t have him attacking and instead I will let him act as a spy”

Team 3...

The juggernaut of the gray team: “I say we attack our desired building”

Ob: “NO wait, they didn’t just give up on us, did they?”

The speedster: “SHUT UP, I need to think”

The speedster speaks into the comms: “Team 1”

Eli: “Yes?”

The speedster: “Did you shut down the communications building?”

At team 1’s location...

Eli: “Yeah we did, but everything is strangely quiet”

Suddenly, a strong sound of smashing happens next to them that dust flies off the floor as it shakes

Eli: “Did you hear that?”

Miracuro: “I felt that”

The hit happens again...

Miracuro: “Look from this window”

Eli looks from the window and sees the big black cage that was next to the building and sees something strange

There’s only one Telisryan standing in front of the cage’s door

This telisryan presses on a red button next to the door

The door starts opening slowly as the telisryan looks at Eli with a smile and waves 'Hi'

The telisryan picks up something that looks like a sleeping mask and wears it

Eli shifts his eyes towards the cage and sees a huge blue hand with long sharp nails coming out

Eli rushes back to Miracuro and says: "Prepare yourself, I think we have a huge fight"

Miracuro: "What did you see?"

Team 2...

Drova is flying passing by telisryan bridges and creating holes in buildings with Marthon away from him with meters breaking cars and smashing glasses and the Lasers didn't leave them

Marthon: "We can't escape while being down here, gain height, we will lose them in the fogs, 3, 2, 1"

Marthon and Drova are inside a tower, and they sharply change direction to face upwards

They are smashing into the levels of the tower killing all the telisryans creating holes in the entire tower with sounds of screams everywhere as the Lasers are piercing through the building killing more telisryans

Drova and Marthon leave through breaking the roof and coming out from inside the building to the very top of the tower

Marthon looks at Drova and then they both look at the tower as it goes down

The whole tower falls at telisryan homes and people, writing thousands of deaths on the planet

Drova looks at Marthon and says: “Let’s gain more height”

They both attempt to enter the sky, when suddenly a Lazer shots Drova knocking him out making him fall to the ground

Marthon attempts to follow him quickly to catch him, but Lazars are everywhere around him preventing him from closing in on Drova to save him

Marthon looks at Drova while he’s falling sadly and feeling helpless that he can’t save his teammate and decides to back off to the sky...

On Dominara...

Master Gru is in his apartment

He takes off his comms and throws it on a table

His wife: “Why are you here? Aren’t you supposed to be with the council?”

Master Gru: “I’ve been dismissed away from it”

His wife: “Why?”

Master Gru: “Because I thought I did the right thing and made the right choices, but they didn’t believe me”

His wife puts her hand on his shoulder and says: “Gru, I trust you, I trust your mind, you didn’t do what you did because you were afraid, and these guys increase the fear more, we are lucky you had this place for us to isolate us from them, but even under all of these conditions, you still managed to use your mind and think and come up with plans, look at your boy, do you want for him the fate of death just because you were dismissed from the council, just screw this council and do what needs to be done”

Master Gru looks at the comm he just threw at the table and then looks at his son and decides to do the right thing

Master Gru walks towards the table and picks up the comm and puts it in his ear and says: “Team 2, status?”

Marthon: “We bought ourselves sometime, but I guess it’s not too long, so we better act quicker”

Master Gru: “Team 1, any noises?”

Team 1...

Miracuro as he gets up from the floor: “Yep, kinda”

Miracuro looks at the big blue monster that’s standing in front of him

The monster is very fat with hair on the chest and hands; with muscles buried under the fat and a strange device wrapped around its neck with a green light

The monster shouts hard as it attempts to hit Miracuro, but Miracuro jumps on his hand and accelerates towards its face and kicks it

Master Gru: “What’s that sound?”

Eli: “There’s a big blue monster attacking us!”

Miracuro: “WE NEED REINFORCEMENTS! WE NEED A JUGGERNAUT!”

Master Gru: “I will send in team 3”

The monster attempts to punch Eli but he quickly protects himself with his arms and the monster sends him flying across the building to get smashed into a wall knocked out unconscious

Miracuro: “AHH SHIT, NOW YOU’RE LEAVING ME?!”

The monster jumps and attempts to crush Miracuro but Miracuro dodges away and then Miracuro jumps on his hands, pushes with them as strong as he can to make enough force to damage the monster and he shoots himself with his hands and kicks the monster in its belly only to throw him a little inches away on the ground

Master Gru: “Team 3, we need you at team 1’s location”

The speedster: “We can’t move anywhere, the whole planet is shutting down, and everyone is going home and soldiers and jets are everywhere, we just found this empty apartment and waiting there for any orders”

Master Gru: “Zex”

Zex whispers: “Yeah?”

Master Gru: “Why are you whispering?”

At the mother ship...

Zex is between crates and stuff hiding

Zex: “I’m hiding, sir why can’t I just kill them all here?”

Master Gru: “I cannot risk that; our people still in their planet and we don’t want to do anything stupid to not start a fight we’re not prepared for”

Master Gru: “Team 1, I’m sorry but you are on your own now”

Team 1...

Miracuro gets kicked away from this monster and lies next to Eli

Eli opens his eyes

Miracuro happily: “You’re up!”

Eli gets an idea and says: “Keep it busy here, I have an idea, you can try to remove this device from its neck”

Eli flies out of the building and keeps searching around for the telisryan he just saw

He sees telisryan forces coming from far away approaching them

Eli sees the telisryan standing behind a wall wearing the controlling device of the monster

Eli flies fast towards him when suddenly, the huge monster jumps out of the building creating a big hole in it towards Eli with Miracuro holding the device and is pulling it as strong as he can

The monster catches Eli before reaching the telisryan and smashes him to the ground

Miracuro: “ELI!!”

Miracuro looks at Eli who was his finger pointed towards the telisryan

Miracuro looked at the telisryan and he was attempting to jump but the monster held him and threw him away making him keep friction with the ground

Miracuro gets up hardly with his whole body scratched and his blood comes from everywhere

The monster runs towards him as the telisryan smiles in victory

Miracuro stands in his place with no movement he carries himself on one leg

This is just enough

They sent him there without knowing his fate or what he is facing,
just a random unknown mission that needs to be done

Miracuro just gave up trying, let it be

Miracuro closed his eyes waiting for his fate, the final hit that ends him

As the monster approaches him, it suddenly falls to the ground in pain and holds the device on its neck and screams hardly

Miracuro opens his eyes in shock and sees the monster lying on the ground

Miracuro looks at Eli and sees him have his hand planted in the Telisryan's head creating a hole the middle of it

Eli falls on the ground holding his ribs in pain

Miracuro smiles and lets out a small laugh, the small laugh grows and becomes even louder laugh

He lands on his knees as he's laughing

Eli coughs as he's trying to laugh as well and says: "Please, don't make me laugh, I think I broke a rib and it hurts"

Miracuro keeps laughing and Eli too

Miracuro: "I love you, man"

Eli: "Fuck you"

Miracuro as he laughs: “It’s what this donut-headed telisryan did to you” and continues laughing and Eli laughs hardly too

The cars and jets arrived at their location and spotted them

Eli: “Oh, I almost forgot to tell you, these guys were coming”

Miracuro and Eli get up and attempt to escape as the telisryan military is after them...

Team 2...

Marthon doesn’t stay in one place, he keeps jumping from fog to fog and the military are searching for him

He can’t see clearly in these fogs but the more blindly he is in the fog the more secure the fog is

He is flying when suddenly he hits someone and they all stop

It is Miracuro

Marthon pushes him away

Now its Marthon, Miracuro and Eli

Eli points to the left and says: “This way!”

They fly after Eli

Marthon: “What happened?”

Eli: “They found us, wait, where’s your teammate?”

Marthon sadly: “They caught him”

At the mother ship...

Zex is thinking loudly: “If our people are there, how can they ever know that because the communications are broken, you know what? Screw it, I won’t be hiding in the shadows like a scared cat because Gru ordered me to, I already disobeyed them”

Zex pulls the comms from his ear and shatters it to the floor

Zex gets up and confronts the telisryans

The telisryans look at him with confidence and bravely, they don’t seem afraid like the telisryans he killed before

Zex gets nervous from their strange confidence when he hears rough footsteps behind him

He turns around and sees a huge cyan telisryan monster

Zex attempts to fly back towards the telisryans, but the monster quickly catches him from his legs and smashes him into the ship’s structure and hits him with its leg weakening Zex more

The monster holds weak Zex and attempts to kill him but a sound from between the telisryans says: “Wait”

They all turned around and looked at the person who said that it was the same telisryan who broadcasted the message to the dominarians

The telisryan master continues: “We need him alive...”

Later...

Master Gru contacts team 3: “Team 3, any news?”

The leader: “Negative sir, the apartment is safe and no one caught us”

As the leader turns around, she sees a baby telisryan standing in front of the door

The leader is shocked and says calmly: “Shhhhh”

The telisryan child: “MAMA!!”

All the gray team hopped up of their places in shock

The kid’s mother came quickly and saw the whole gray team inside their house, and she quickly managed to press a button on a device she holds in her hand

Team 1 and 2...

Eli: “Come on, quickly, let’s hide in that building”

They all descent towards this building and enter through an open window on the roof

They look around and see medals, statues, excavations around the place

Miracuro: “It’s like a museum”

Eli: “Guys, come here, you need to see this”

Marthon and Miracuro goes to Eli and they see a big old wall inside a glass cube with words written on it

Eli reads: “

Hearken, ye who walk beneath the cold two moons:
Herein is writ the weight of our undoing.

We came from the shadowed nurseries of Telisrya called in the old tongue Talicia.

Hungry of other blood, covetous of other mettle.

We coveted the bone-fire of Dominara: their strength that cleaves the air, their swiftness that rends pursuit, their iron-wrath that bends the very storm.

So rose the Hunger. So was forged the War.

Steel met thought; fury met will; the sky drank thunder and the soil took flame.

Sanguine tides ran the gullied streets; the air itself grew thick with the crimson lament.

No child's lullaby remained; no temple bell unshattered its long note.

Yet war is a cunning teacher. In the end we laid down the iron and took to counting our dead.

Peace came not as mercy but as a tired hand upon a bleeding throat.

And since that sundering, since that day of fire and salt, Talicia was no more to be found.

Either consumed by our own reach, or vanished beyond reckoning, gone from the charts of men.

Let this stone be a mirror and a knife: remember our reaching, remember the cost.

Fear hunger that seeks another's blood for its crown.

The root was less a grievance than a want: envy sharpened into doctrine.

Dominara bore in its people an uncommon plenitude, corporeal prowess wedded to simple clarity.

Where Telisrya's minds could pry and bend the will of others, they could not rend stone nor cleave the heavens.

We tasted impotence and called it a design flaw.

Thus arose a dark calculus: if we could take what Dominara held within their veins, the heirloom of their bodies.

we should become both: full in cunning and full in force; sapient and stalwart; crowned in every vertue.

Their blood was mislabelled as a key; our alchemists and our mind-smiths swore to it, and ritual swelled into law.

This was not mere theft of gold nor seizure of soil; it was a theft of being.

To seek another's blood is to confess the poverty of one's own soul.

We bound our ambitions to instruments of cruelty, and cruelty, once consecrated, multiplies.

The war was the inevitable consequence: a collision of two hungers.

Dominara defended not only flesh but the sanctity of selfhood;

Telisrya attacked to erase that boundary and graft its spirit.

When the gates closed and the fields drank, the lesson was carved into every survivor's bones: power taken by violence is a brittle inheritance.

Remember, therefore: desire that devours the other to fill itself yields a hollowed victor and an absent vanquished.

We sought plenitude by draining another; the ledger was balanced with absence.

Talicia, whether consumed, scattered, or cast beyond memory vanished, and what remained were stones that speak warning."

Miracuro: "They started the war just to steal our powers?"

Marthon: "They thought that with their intelligence and our blood they will be able to accomplish the Perfection"

Marthon focuses and says: "DROVA!"

Drova...

Drova wakes up and finds himself on a bed tied with a strong rope supported by crystal particles, he tries to pull his hands out, but he can't

Drova tries to fly but the bed he's sleeping on is carefully fixed on the ground with nails, it just vibrates as he's trying

Someone enters the room, Drova looks at him and sees a telisryan wearing a Dr.'s coat and a telisryan general

The general: "Hey there"

There are advanced devices around the room and a big device with multiple buttons and screens on it

Drova doesn't respond to the general

The general sits next to Drova and says: "So, what's your name?"

Drova doesn't respond again

The general looks at the doctor and waves his head to him

The doctor puts a helmet that is connected to the big device with wires

Drova keeps resisting him, but he couldn't

The helmet is on his head, and a few lights are switched on

The general: "Let's start again, what's your name?"

Speakers on the big device makes a whispers sound stating: "rova, rova, Drova"

The general listens carefully and says: "Drova? Your name is Drova?"

Drova: "What is this?"

The general: "It listens to your automatic thoughts and shares it with us"

Drova: “What do you want?”

The general angrily: “Where are your friends?!”

Drova: “In your blue ass”

The comms of the general states something and he listens carefully...

The general: “Hmm, fantastic, I may have a good idea”

The general looks at the doctor and says: “Max up the power”

Minutes earlier...

Team 3...

Everyone is flying away escaping from the military of Telisrya

The speedster: “TEAM 2, WHERE ARE YOU?!”

Marthon: “Fly northwest, we will meet you there!”

The team changes their direction...

At the mother ship...

Zex landing on his knees with blood coming from his nose and mouth and running along towards his chest

The leader looks at one of the guards and says: “Turn on the big screen, prepare a broadcast”

The square of jets that broadcasts messages turns on and the telisryan is shooting Zex with the general standing by his side with a weapon

The leader: "Tell me your name"

Zex: "Zex"

The leader: "Are you aware that everyone on Dominara is watching you now?"

Zex: "I do"

The leader: "You might live under one condition, your master comes in here and tuns himself in, he has 10 minutes, or we will broadcast again and execute you on public"

Zex: "Don't come in Master Gru, I did that to myself, I deserve death"

The leader punches him and the broadcast is over and instead a countdown starts...

Master Gru was watching all of this silently

A friend of him: "Don't go Master Gru, I can go for you, home needs you more"

Master Gru doesn't respond...

Team 3...

Ob was flying when suddenly, something holds his legs and pulls him downward

Ob tries to fight back but he lands inside a building with all the teams, he looks around and sees that the person holding his legs was Miracuro

He looks at Miracuro and remembers a day he doesn't want to remember...

Now it's Miracuro, Ob, Eli, Marthon and The Gray team all gathered in one place

Marthon: "We need to find Drova!"

Ob: "Where is he?"

Marthon: "He got captured"

Miracuro: "We know that they steal the powers from us, so they might be trying with him"

Marthon: "It will be worse, this guy is a hell flying in the universe, if these guys copied him, we will all die, I know him"

Drova...

The doctor pulls a lever

The helmet on Drova's head starts lighting multiple colors at the same time, shifting between blue, cyan and green and Drova screams from pain

But the helmet leaks electricity and burns out and the device is turned off

The general: "MAX UP THE POWER, DOCTOR"

The doctor: "But sir"

The general shouts: "I SAID, MAX UP THE POWER, I WANT HIM"

The doctor rotates the wheel of power towards the red side, maxing it up

Drova: "My head hurts"

Drova is in a hard condition with this device

The doctor puts a wireless helmet on Drova's head

The general: "Start"

The doctor starts up the machine

The light in the room starts trembling

And everything vibrates as Drova is screaming loudly in pain and shaking the whole bed he's sitting on

The doctor shouts: "WE NEED TO STOP THIS!"

The general: "NO, DON'T STOP UNTIL I SAY SO"

Drova opens his mouth hardly as the pain comes out of it

His eyes tear with blood and nose lets amounts of blood leak out of it

Drova's body is collapsing as his deep mind starts taking control and thinking of the past...

Inside Drova's mind...

WHAT MADE YOU LIKE THIS?

WHY ARE YOU SO DIFFERENT THAN THE OTHERS

DROVA HEARS MARTHON SAYS "THE ONE WHO ESCAPED THE CHAOS..."

WHERE DID ALL OF IT START?

DROVA: "I WAS JUST PROMOTED, I BECAME SO POPULAR THAT DOMINARA STARTED COUNT ME AS THE FEW WHO CAN TAKE DOWN A WHOLE EMPIRE ALL ALONE, I FELT IN LOVE WITH MYSELF, MY PRIDE AND HAPPINESS FED ME THAT THEY HAD ME FORGETTING HOW TO DO THINGS"

DROVA SEES HIMSELF FLYING TOWARDS A YELLOW PLANET THAT LOOKED DESERTED AND POOR...

DROVA CONTINUES: "IT WAS MY FIRST MISSION, I WAS SO CONFIDENT THAT THIS PLANET DOESN'T DESERVE ME TO CONQUER IT, THEY COULD'VE JUST SENT ANYONE ELSE, BUT FOR SOME REASON, THIS PLANET WAS CALLED 'CHAOS'"

THE DROVA, WHO WAS IN PLANET CHAOS, STARTED FLYING CRAZILY AROUND THE PLANET

DESTROYING THE STONES-MADE BUILDINGS AND SPREADING FEAR ACROSS THE PLACE

DROVA SAYS: "MY PRIDE AND CONFIDENCE MADE ME WEAKER NOT STRONGER; IT BLINDED ME FROM KNOWING WHY THIS PLACE WAS CALLED CHAOS..."

SUDDENLY A HUGE METALLIC BALL WRAPPED IN A
STEEL ROPE HITS DROVA, HARDLY SMASHING HIM
IN BUILDINGS AND IT KNOCKED HIM OUT
INSTANTLY

A CHANGE...

DROVA IS SITTING IN A ROOM TIED TO A CHAIR,
SO TIRED THAT HE CAN'T MOVE A MUSCLE

THIS DROVA IS UNCONSCIOUS

DROVA: "THEY INJECTED ME WITH A MATERIAL
THAT WITHDREW ALL OF THE LIQUIDS IN MY BODY"

SUDDENLY, ANOTHER VERSION OF DROVA ENTERS
THE ROOM

THIS DROVA IS HEALTHY AND STRONG

THE TORTURER DROVA: "WHY ARE YOU HERE?"

WEAK DROVA DOESN'T RESPOND...

HE'S AWAKE BUT CAN'T DO ANYTHING

TORTURER DROVA SHOUTS: "I SAAAIIIID WHY
AAAAREEE YOUUUU HEEEEEREEEE!!!"

THE TORTURER DROVA ATTEMPTS TO KICK WEAK
DROVA ON HIS CHEST, BUT WEAK DROVA
DEFLECTS IT

TORTURER DROVA HOLDS HIS LEG IN PAIN AND SAYS: "HMMMM, INTERESTING POWERS..."

TORTURER DROVA ROLLS UP HIS SLEEVES AND SAYS: "LET'S START..."

At Dominara...

7 minutes has passed...

Gru's wife while crying: "Please, don't go"

Master Gru: "I will come back, I promise"

Master Gru flies off the ground on his direction to the sky while all the dominarian people are looking at him sadly...

The door of the telisryan mother ship opens and Master Gru enters quietly...

Zex sadly: "I told you not to come..."

Master Gru: "It's okay, son"

The telisryan leader: "Lock them both"

Gru: "WHAT? THE DEAL WAS TO CUT HIM LOOSE WHEN I'M HERE!"

The telisryan monster punches Gru and picks them both as Zex is resisting defending Gru

At Telisrya...

The team is sitting when suddenly a spotlight is pointed at them with sound: "The Dominarians are found..."

BACK IN DROVA'S MIND...

THE TORTURER DROVA HOLDS WEAK DROVA BY HIS NECK AS TORTURER DROVA CONTINUES HIS STORY BY SAYING: "HE TORTURED ME FOR DAYS, WEEKS, MONTHS, I COULDN'T FEEL TIME!"

TORTURER DROVA PUNCHES HIS WEAK VERSION OF HIMSELF ON HIS FACE TWICE BUT AS THE THIRD PUNCH LANDED, DROVA DEFLECTED IT
TORTURER DROVA: "NICE, I'M COMING AGAIN TOMORROW"

DROVA: "AND ON THE NEXT DAY, HE ENTERS THE ROOM AND DO THE SAME OVER AND OVER, WITHOUT A DROP OF WATER OR FOOD"

TORTURER DROVA ENTERS THE ROOM AND PUNCHES WEAK DROVA ON HIS CHIN, SMASHING

HIM ON THE CEILING MAKING SMALL SHATTERS
ON IT

DROVA FALLS ON THE FLOOR AGAIN AFTER THIS TORTURER DROVA ATTEMPTS TO KICK HIM, BUT
DROVA DEFLECTS IT

TORTURER DROVA CONTINUES: "I WAS USING THE
LAST INCH OF THE POWER I COULD GENERATE THE WHOLE DAY JUST TO DEFLECT HIS ATTACKS, SO THAT HE LEAVES AND COMES BACK TOMORROW TO REPEAT THE LOOP"

PUNCHES AFTER PUNCHES, KICKS AFTER KICKS

TORTURER DROVA: "I WAS GETTING BEATIN
UNTIL I HAD NO BLOOD TO SPIT!"

TORTURER DROVA PUNCHES DROVA SPITTING OFF
TEETH ON THE GROUND

DROVA SCREAMS HARDLY MORE...

In the real world...

Drova's screams in his head are translated into screams in real life

Suddenly, Drova could tear the crystallin-assisted ropes and jumped off the bed then landed on the ground with his face

facing the ground, screaming devices turned silent, Drova stopped screaming

The general is looking at him enthusiastically and the doctor is afraid

Drova raises his head and looks at the general who smiles as he sees him

Drova's eyes are shining cyan, there's no reaction on his face, just pure murderer with sharp looking features...

The general hears in the comms: "THE DOMINARIANS HAS BEEN FOUND"

The general: "Good, now prepare an armor for our new friend here"

The teams...

Jets surround them from everywhere they are trying to escape but the fog is less than before due to the jets flying through them

Suddenly a person wearing dark armor that is designed with cyan crystals comes from the sky down in front of them

The person spreads his arms, and they all bang on him

He grabs all of them and flies like a bullet towards a building and throws them all inside breaking glass and the whole team is fascinated by this person, he lands in front of them

Marthon: "There's no telisryan that strong, THIS is DROVA"

Drova's body is all covered in armor, with the helmet covering his face and keeping his mind stable and under control

Marthon: "He survived death, he's not an easy opponent"

The speedster of the gray team: "I've heard his story too"

Drova spreads his arms. The cyan crystals catch light like a scream.

Drova sprints.

The ground cracks under his feet.

Miracuro flies first, straight at him. A clean punch to the chest.

The hit reflects.

Miracuro screams. His arm bends the wrong way as he crashes into a wall.

Eli charges next. Pure strength. He grabs Drova and tries to slam him down.

Drova lets him.

The force multiplies.

Eli's own ribs shatter. He drops, coughing blood.

The speedster girl appears behind Drova, striking fast, ten hits in a blink.

Every hit returns.

Her hands bleed. Her speed dies. She stumbles back, shaking.

The deflector steps in. He raises his field and punches Drova, confident.

Drova hits back through the deflection.

The pain reflects... then reflects again.

The deflector collapses, screaming, hands clutching his head.

The juggernaut roars and charges like a tank.

Drova meets him head-on.

One punch.

The juggernaut flies through glass and concrete, not moving.

Miracuro looks at Ob and tells him: "With me!"

Ob jumps at Drova distract him

Drova looks at Ob and he tries to reach him

As Drova turns around he is surprised by a strong punch from Miracuro's face, he couldn't deflect that one

IN DROVA'S MIND...

THE SAME PUNCH IS LANDED ON WEAK DROVA'S FACE FROM THE TORTURER DROVA

WEAK DROVA SCREAMS FROM PAIN

Drova turns and grabs Ob by the face, slamming him into the ground again.

DROVA: "HE KILLED MY PRIDE WITH HIS FIST!"

Drova punches Miracuro away

TORTURER DROVA: "I HAVE LEEEEAAARRRNEDD TO DEFLECT WHILE SLEEPING!!"

Drova holds Eli by his neck and slams him to the ground

Drova steps forward through the broken team.

Slow. Calm. Unstoppable.

They don't attack again.

They know now.

Every hit only makes him stronger; they must change the strategy...

AT NIGHT, TORTURER DROVA WALKS IN AND PUNCHES WEAK DROVA, BUT WEAK DROVA DEFLECTS IT

TORTURER DROVA: "WOW? I DIDN'T EVEN START" SOMEDAY...

DROVA: "THIS DAY, IT WAS RAINING ROUGHLY THAT I COULD HEAR THE WATER OUTSIDE, HE HELD ME AND THREW ME AS STRONG AS HE COULD AT THE CEILING AGAIN THAT HE TEARED A SMALL SCRATCH ON IT THAT LET THE WATER PASS THROUGH"

Miracuro shouts: "DON'T HIT, JUST STOP HIM FROM MOVING!"

The whole team gathers around him

Drova hits them, but they dodge

Eli quickly holds his leg and stables himself to the ground and at the same time, Marthon holds his right hand

The speedster holds the other leg

Drova is trying to resist them, but they are using every energy they've got to NOT let him go

Drova screams loudly: "AHHHHHHH"

This AHHH is also translated into a strong scream that happens in his MIND

Miracuro jumped and held Drova from his neck as hard as he could

Drova lets out a strong scream before the change...

IN DROVA'S MIND...

THE HOLE IN THE CEILING LETS IN A DROP OF WATER FROM THE RAIN FALLS INSIDE

WEAK DROVA SENSES THIS DROP OF WATER AND RAISES HIS HEAD, OPENS HIS MOUTH, PREPARING HIS MOUTH FOR IT

THE TORTURER DROVA LOOKS AT IT AND HIS FACE CHANGES FROM STRONG TO FEAR...

THE DROP FALLS IN DROVA'S MOUTH

AT THE SAME SECOND, WEAK DROVA OPENS HIS EYES WIDE, HE ONLY NEEDED A DROP OF WATER TO GAIN BACK ENERGY THAT ENABLES HIM TO GAIN HIS REVENGE

DROVA PULLS HIS HANDS EASILY FROM THE ROPE, FREEING HIMSELF AND HE'S NOW STANDING IN FRONT OF THE TORTURER VERSION OF HIMSELF

THE TORTURER VERSION OF DROVA NOW TURNS INTO THE REAL TORTURER

In the lab...

The doctor sees all the pointers are turning red...

The doctor gets worried and says to the general: "Something wrong is happening, he's waking up!"

THE TORTURER IN FEAR AND DESPAIR PUNCHES DROVA ON HIS FACE, BUT HE EASILY DEFLECTS IT

THE TORTURER ATTEMPTS TO RUN BUT AS HE TURNS AROUND, HE SEES DROVA STANDING IN FRONT OF HIM

DROVA, IN A FAST MOVE, SHAPES HIS HAND AS A SWORD AND CUTS A BIG HOLE IN THE TORTURER'S BELLY, FORCING ALL THE INNER ORGANS TO LEAVE THE BODY

THE TORTURER FALLS ON THE GROUND TRYING TO COLLECT HIS ORGANS

HE HOLDS HIS ORGANS WITH HIS HANDS, TRYING TO PUSH THEM INSIDE, BLOOD IS EVERYWHERE

HE TAKES HIS LAST BREATH, AND LEAVES THE WORLD...

DROVA HAS LOTS OF RANCOR THAT HE WANTS TO USE

DROVA FLIES OUT OF THE BUILDING, FLOATS MID-AIR, SPREADS HIS HANDS WIDELY AS THE
RAINWATER CRAWLS ON HIS BODY

DROVA DOESN'T HESITATE, HE CLASHES IN THE SPEED OF LIGHT TOWARDS BUILDINGS AND PEOPLE, KILLING ANYONE HE SEES

DROVA: "THIS PLACE CHANGED ME, IT MADE ME
WHO I AM, IT FORCED ME TO FALL IN LOVE WITH BLOOD, IT FORCED ME TO LOVE DEATH AND DON'T EVEN HESITATE IN KILLING ANY ONE, IT GAVE ME
POPULATION, EVERYONE KNOWS ME, EVERYONE
FEARS ME, EVERYONE RESPECTS ME, I SUCCEEDED
AFTER THIS MORE AND GAINED POPULARITY
AMONG THE DOMINARIANS, THE CHILDREN
LOOKED AT ME AND WISHED THEY COULD BE LIKE ME, NOBODY KNEW HOW MUCH I HAVE IGNORED

THAT DAY, UNTIL IT TEARED ME OVER FROM THE
INSIDE, THAT LEFT A HOLE IN MY MIND THAT TELISRYA ENTERED MY MIND WITH

I HAVE WON, BUT AT WHAT COST?

In the real world...

Drova slips from their hands, and he stands on the ground in front of them, which takes us to the scene in the beginning of Act 1...

Miracuro and Eli...

Ob and The Gray Team...

Marthon...

All are standing behind him well prepared, nervous and focused, breathing hardly because of exhaustion, red and blue blood is everywhere, the red blood's source is the dominarians, scratches and bruises are everywhere on their bodies while the blue blood is coming out of blue slaughtered strange looking creatures

A BROKEN WARRIOR, COVERED IN ENEMIES'
BRIGHT CRYSTAL ARMOR, BRILLIANT BECAUSE HE
USED HIS MENTAL ILLNESS TO HIS ADVANTAGE,
BUT DIDN'T KNOW THAT THE INFECTION IS
SPREADING AND SOMEDAY, THE BOMB WILL
EXPLODE BURNING HIMSELF FROM THE INSIDE.

The warrior decides to escape; he cannot face his brothers after what happened

The warrior vanishes in a flash of an eye, leaving the helmet drops to the ground, burned and all black

Marthon as he flies towards him: “WAIT!”

Miracuro flies and catches Marthon with his hand and says: “Let him take his moment, they must’ve broken something inside of him, he’ll come back”

Marthon pulls his hand and flies back to the ground

Sounds of emergency is all over Telisrya

Miracuro looks out of the broken wall and sees a huge army of telisryans along with their big blue monsters

All are under the building launching their weapons towards them

Miracuro shouts: “THEY FOUND US, RUN!!”

They all fly out of the building

The speedster: “WE NEED A PLAN; WE CAN’T KEEP ESCAPING”

Eli: “GRUUU! GRUUUUU!!!!”

In the mother ship...

Zex: “Why did you come?”

Master Gru: “I always said that I trust you, I knew that if they let you go, you will come back and save me”

Zex: “Yeah, if...”

The door opens and they are led out of the room and to the leader

They sit in front of him

The leader holds Gru’s comm in his hand

The leader: “You are going to tell your people to back out of Telisrya now!”

Gru: “You know I won’t”

A punch land on Gru’s face...

On Telisrya...

Eli: “Gru isn’t responding, we are on our own now”

Ob sees a sewer in the ground and his eyes brights with an idea...

Ob: “Listen carefully everyone, I have a plan, follow me!”

Ob changes direction towards a drain, he punches it creating a hole and gets down there with all the other members following him

In the mother ship...

The leader: “TALK!”

Gru doesn’t answer

On Telisrya...

Ob is standing in a long hallway alone; he shapes his hand as a sword and cuts through a huge gas tube creating a gas leak

Ob: "Done"

In the mother ship...

The leader takes out a gun and points it towards Zex and shouts again: "TALK!!"

On Telisrya...

Eli does the same in another tube

And says: "Done"

In the mother ship...

Gru hesitates

On Telisrya...

Marthon: "Done"

In the mother ship...

The leader: "HMM, okay"

On Telisrya...

The deflector of the gray team: "Done"

In the mother ship...

The leader attempts to pull the trigger but Gru shouts:

"WAIT, WAIT, I'll talk, just don't kill him"

On Telisrya...

The juggernaut is running and punching the ceiling of the sewers
weakening it

The team is under the army, they surround them underground

In the mother ship...

The leader smiles and puts down the gun

On Telisrya...

The juggernaut: "Done"

In the mother ship...

The leader gives the comms to Gru

Master Gru holds it

The leader: "Now, tell them!"

On Telisrya...

Ob: "Athena, Miracuro, spark!"

Miracuro is standing at the beginning of the hallway and Athena, who's the speedster of the gray team, is in another hallway in the sewers

In the mother ship...

Gru hits the leader with his head creating tense in the room

On Telisrya...

Miracuro and Athena sprint like bullets at the same time and they spread their pointer finger on the small tubes on the wall next to them

They slightly touch these tubes with their nails creating sparks that lightens up the gas

In the mother ship...

The telisryan guards took out their guns and pointed it towards Gru, Gru runs and hides and Zex stands up and started flying in the room killing the guards

On Telisrya...

The spark in the gas creates a MASSIVE explosion around the area where the military is

The fire's color is blue

A big circle surrounded the militia

In the mother ship...

Gru is old, he can't fight like Zex

Zex holds a gun from a telisryan and kills him then he uses this gun to kill the rest of the guards in there

On Telisrya...

The ground swallowed the whole army down killing and destroying any cars or soldiers in the area

And murdering thousands of civilians as the buildings fall on top of each other, ALL buried under the ground of Telisrya

In the mother ship...

Emergency lights are out

More telisryans get inside the room

It's only Zex and Gru alone in there

The blue monster enters the room with a lot of other telisryan guards

Zex and Gru walks back slowly towards a big window
The blue people are approaching them

Zex looks at Gru sadly
Zex looks back through the window on Dominara, for one last time
Zex holds Gru with his hands
Gru says sadly: “No”
Zex flies with him, breaking the window
Zex whispers: “Goodbye Gru, your confidence is well-placed”
Zex pushes Gru with his legs as strong as he could towards the ground of Dominara as Gru shouts: “NOOOO!!!”

Zex flies back to the mother ship while whipping his tears and he fills himself with anger
The telisryan soldiers shoot at him Lazers
The Lazers kept burning his body, but he didn't fall to the ground
He charged towards them as fast and strong as he could
They thought he was committing suicide by fighting them
But he was fighting his way to the corridor
Zex charged towards the crates he was hiding between before
These crates weren't useless; they had the word (watchout fire) with a fire logo behind it

The telisryans are after him running after they understood what he's been meaning to do...

Zex's tears run off as he points the telisryan gun towards it

The telisryans aren't shooting him because they know that one simple mistake could kill them all...

Zex smiles and pulls the trigger...

All the people of Dominara see the mother ship being destroyed, the huge fires are everywhere

The blue organs are flying everywhere...

Gru is looking at the fire sadly with tears running off his face, he couldn't save a kid he considers to be his son

Moment of silence after the destruction happened...

Then suddenly, the whole Dominara planet is celebrating and cheers are everywhere

They have lost a true soldier, but a happy ending is theirs...

On Telisrya...

The team is standing on a big building away from the explosion and blue is reflecting in their eyes as they see the place is burning
Ob was looking at the fire when the sound of Athena cuts his thoughts

Athena: “How did you know about this gas tubes under the sewers?”

Ob looks at her and says:

“It happened once on Dominara, I don’t remember exactly HOW, but what I know is that it was a gas leak, and ever since I got here, I only see a blue version of Dominara, so it was just a hunch”

Miracuro: “I think we brought down a big amount of the army”

Marthon: “Let’s find Drova and destroy this place for good”

A big jet rises behind them

The team looks at this jet and a huge blue telisryan monster is on it

Behind them again another jet arises with another blue monster

Miracuro: “Get ready folks”

Eli: “These guys aren’t easy...”

The two monsters jump at the same time on them

They dodge away

The impact and their huge weights led the roof to collapse

They all fall in, the monsters and the big team are now inside the building

The monsters shout loudly

Eli: “They have no device on their necks”

Miracuro: “They are not being controlled, it’s their pure anger on their home destruction”

The brutal fight starts

Miracuro, Eli and Marthon attack one while the gray team attacks the other

Miracuro jumps and punches the monster on its face, and Eli kicks it on its knee while Marthon is punching it on its chest

Athena keeps running around their monster and lands quick punches on its body distracting it

Ob jumps and kicks it on its face, and the juggernaut punches it on its chest throwing it away with their deflector on the back receives the monster with a kick slamming it into a wall

Eli jumps and kicks the monster then lands on the ground and lands two punches on its face

The monster holds Eli and throws him at Miracuro, then holds Marthon and slams him on the ground

The other monster kicks away the juggernaut and puts his leg in front of Athena, tripping her on the ground and dodges Ob who accidentally hits the deflector

The monsters pick up rocks from the ground and throw them at the team who cannot escape them

Suddenly when all the hopes are gone...

A HOLE IS TORN THROUGH THE BUILDING
A LIVING BULLET ENTERED THE BATTLE AND
PIERCED THROUGH A MONSTER'S SIDE BELLY,
DROPPING BLOOD AND MEAT ON THE GROUND
IT IS DROVA...

Drova punches the monster he just pierced through on the face

The monster fell on the ground grunts in pain

The monster attempted to kick Drova, but the juggernaut punched it away

Drova jumped on the monster and shaped two fists with his hands and he planted them inside both monster's eyes

The forearms of Drova are moving meaning that he is crushing down the brain of this creature killing it instantly

Drova takes off his blue hand coming from the blood of the monster and licks off the blood from his fingers

As for the other monster, the whole team is punching it hard, punch after punch, kick after kick, the monster can't see and can't do anything

The monster waves its hand randomly and it almost hits Miracuro

Miracuro dodges and kicks the monster towards an electric generator

Miracuro shouts: “ELI!”

Eli turns on the switch of the electricity

The monster gets electrified and it screams loudly as it being charred

Seconds later, the screams stop, the big blue monster turns into ashes...

Jets surround the building, the last remaining military in Telisrya around the building ready to shoot them

Suddenly, 8 living bullets are shot out of the building

Miracuro and Eli

Drova and Marthon

Ob and The Gray Team

All left the building flying randomly destroying building, killing millions of telisryans

The jets can't keep up with them

Ob holds one of the jets and throws it on a building full of people

Miracuro and Athena are running down the buildings, breaking off the columns forcing all the buildings to collapse

Marthon and Eli start flying while spinning around their place creating a living tornado that swallows anything on its path

The jets surround Drova and the speedster of the gray team and they start shooting Lasers at them

Only for the Lasers to be deflected back at them and on the people and buildings around them

The juggernaut jumps kilometers in the air and then lands roughly on the ground smashing it and creating an earth-quack that collapses all the buildings around

The sound of screams and the smell of death is everywhere on Telisrya

If only Telisrya lived with their loss and accepted the gifts they were given, they would've still been alive right now

The dominarian warriors falls back to their ships and into one location: Home...

Team 1...

Miracuro: "I didn't get the chance to know this Drova guy, I didn't even see his face"

Eli: "Me neither"

Miracuro: "I'm sure he's a good person"

Eli: "Yeah"

Eli looks at Miracuro and says: "Wanna go somewhere?"

Miracuro: “Me? No thanks, I just need to go home, it was a tuff few days...”

The heroes left Telisrya to rot in its blue blood...

Team 2...

Drova is looking through the window absent-minded

Marthon: “What happened to you?”

Drova looks at him: “I was just being honest with myself”

Team 3...

Ob: “Uhh, guys”

Athena: “What?”

Ob: “I think that is enough, I want to run alone, I need to clear my mind and live with myself, it was a really great last mission I had with you, but everything has an end”

Athena gets up and goes to Ob; she shakes his hand respectfully...

After reaching Dominara...

The teams leave their jets and lands between the cheers of the people who are happy by their coming back...

Smiles and happiness are everywhere

Drova just flies away, he was waiting to reach his home just to clear his mind and be alone for some time...

Few days later...

In a celebration where Master Gru is honoring their heroes, Drova is missing...

Master Gru: "These heroes were at Telisrya, the destruction of the enemies was by their hands! They will always gain my respect, and I thank them by the name of all Dominarians"

Master Gru continues: "I can't forget to mention a kid who was like a son to me, Zex, he was the strong hand here on Dominara, everyone thought he disobeyed orders, screw them, he did the right thing for the family, he sacrificed himself so that me and you can live, and I ordered to create this for him!"

A big cloth is removed revealing the statue of Zex

Cheers are everywhere and happiness, a good ending that cannot be trusted...

Later, Miracuro walks in a building and enters the office of Master Gru

Master Gru: "Hey Miracuro, you have a new mission"

Miracuro: "This quick? The war just ended"

Master Gru: "It's called E61"

THE END...?
