CHAPTER ONE: CHANGES

A group of friends are leaving the building after a long day at work

They're in their late 20's complaining about their boss, the work pressure etc

The protagonist is walking with them silently

Suddenly a bunch of guys riding a motorbikes passes by and one of them looking like he's the boss hits the protagonist and drives away quickly while laughing with his friend on the motorbikes

A girl of the friends: "What a jerk!"

One of the guys shouts: "FUCK YOU!"

They gather around the protagonist one of them says: "Are you okay, Aiden?"

Aiden: "Yes, I'm fine"

One of the guys: "I swear tomorrow we will teach him a lesson"

Aiden: "No, it's okay leave it to me"

Next day in the working office...

Aiden: "MICHEL"

Michel, the guy who slapped Aiden yesterday is looking at Aiden and smiles

Michel: "You want another one?"

All of the co-workers are looking at the situation

Suddenly Aiden fly in the air and stands still like he is floating with both of his hands are straighten next to his body and a bit of shaking In his body

Aiden: "You harassed me, and you will get what you deserve"

Aiden fly back a little and straighten his body like a plane getting ready for a strong dash

Michel is looking at Aiden afraid of him

Aiden rushes so quick to Michel holding him and throws him out of the building's glass

Aiden then rushed towards him faster than the speed of a bullet, the people didn't see him in the way

Aiden grabs Michel and throws him back inside the building

Aiden lands in front of him

Michel gets up angry and says: "YOU THINK YOU'RE TOUGH!"

Michel runs towards Aiden and was about to hit him

Aiden is standing still

When Michel was about to hit him, Aiden stand next to him and looking at his arm moving with a smile

Michel tries to punch Aiden but Aiden moved fast behind him and taps on his shoulder

When Michel turned back, Aiden pushed him towards a wall

Michel is smashed into the wall; his friends go to help him getting up

Aiden's friends looks at him with a shocked face and they were about to approach him but he flied away

Later...

A girl: "Did he answer?"

A guy: "No"

Another girl: "What the hell was that! He flied and he was faster than a bullet!"

A guy: "It was very strange I don't know he had those powers and why didn't he tell us about it"

The guy calling him: "SHH he answered, Hello?"

Aiden: "Can we meet?"

The guy: "Yes of course"

Aiden: "Ok in our spot"

The friends are in a café next to a river

Aiden approaches them and sets

One of the guys: "What happened today? How did you have those powers! It was amazing!"

Aiden: "I will tell you my story, My real name is not Aiden it's Miracuro, I'm from a planet called Dominara, this planet is galaxies away from here, we are born with different powers but we all share the same powers they are flying, strength, speed and the last one and best one is durability, We discovered the ability to travel across galaxies and started to conquer another planets to expand our empire, months ago we've discovered your planet and I was sent to conquer it, it's regularly two or three of my people are sent to conquer a planet but in some cases one person is sent to do three man's job, like myself, I came here and looked into the biggest building on earth, we usually start the destruction with the highest building, I saw people who looked exactly like us, at first I thought I would find you be able to fly and have strength like us, but when I saw that there are hard working men who struggle to lift a bar of metal and can't even lift a tree, I saw you guys while I was flying and I felt something strange towards you, I have a lot of blood in my hands, Innocent people are dead because of me, and I regretted it, I couldn't murder people who looked exactly like myself, I had myself in your shoes and it was very bad I..."

Just as Miracuro was about to continue an Army of the country shows up quickly

Miracuro stands up and looks at them

Helicopters, tanks and a large number of soldiers around him

The person in charge is holding a bullhorn from the helicopter and says:
"STAND DOWN! WE OUTNUMBERED YOU, DON'T TRY TO MAKE ANYTHING STUPID BECAUSE WE WILL NOT HESITATE IN OPENING FIRE!"

Miracuro Expands the horizon between his feet, flexes his muscles preparing for the battle, eyes glows imagining blood shreds around the place

The soldier: "I REPEAT, STAND D..."

In a part of a millisecond Miracuro jumped into the helicopter and stashed his right hand in the soldier's neck

His hand is completely red

The pilot is shocked and moves randomly with the helicopter

Miracuro jumps off and catches the helicopter's main blade and as he was falling he threw the whole helicopter on a tank

As Miracuro landed on the ground the soldiers opened fire on him

Miracuro looked quickly on his friends seeing the world in slow motion

He ran towards his friends with his super speed

A bullet was about to smash a girl from them in her head

Miracuro had his hand next to her face so the bullet hits his hand instead

Miracuro carries her and runs away and returns back to take another person and so on until they are all moved away from the place

All that happened in just a part of the second

Miracuro returns back to the army and uses his speed to literally run through them all tearing them apart leaving only their organs randomly shattered in the place

A tank fires at him, Miracuro puts his hand towards the tank's shell and the shell explodes on his hand but Miracuro jumps off the smoke and lands strongly on the tank then he jumps again but uses his weak flying ability to land harshly on the tank and the tank splatted in half

The remaining soldiers are shooting on Miracuro but the bullets doesn't affect him

Miracuro was about to cut them all but suddenly the girl he saved is calling out loud for him

Miracuro looks backward and sees her entering the field

Miracuro rushes towards her and grabs her away from the place

Miracuro: "You shouldn't be here, Emma"

Emma: "Please just go with them"

Miracuro: "I can't"

Emma: "They won't be able to hurt you just cooperate with them"

Miracuro: "After all of those dead bodies?"

Emma: "They will understand that was horrified"

Miracuro: "They don't scare me, I did this because I sensed danger around you!"

The radio of the soldiers: "He just disappeared"

Miracuro shows up again in the field

A soldier: "OPEN FIRE!!"

Miracuro is just standing there between the bullets being shot at him as an attempt to murder him without doing anything

The soldier: "HOLD YOUR FIRE!"

Miracuro is still in his place, didn't move an inch

Miracuro raises his hands and puts them behind his head

An armored car comes and Miracuro rides it

Later...

Miracuro is inside a room his hands are cuffed

Someone enters the room and sits in front of him

The guy: "My name is general Watson and you are?"

Miracuro: "Miracuro"

Watson: "Hmm, I would've called you Miracle, makes more sense, do you care to explain who you really are? You've no past records in any country that proves your existence"

Miracuro: "You are in danger and I'm your last hope of survival"

Watson: "Do you care to share more details?"

Miracuro: "A few months we've discovered your planet, I was sent here to conquer it and it has been months with no response from me to my home planet"

Watson: "Only you? No offense"

Miracuro: "Yes, only one of my people is capable of taking down a whole planet and add it to our empire"

Watson: "So, why didn't you conquer it?"

Miracuro: "I liked it here"

Watson: "What's the danger now?"

Miracuro: "They will send someone here to investigate my disappearance, if I'm alive they will get me out, if I'm dead they will avenge me and, in all cases, they will conquer your planet"

Watson: "What do you suggest?"

Miracuro: "I suggest we start training until they send someone to track me off and find out why am I missing"

Next day...

Watson and Miracuro are walking in a government organization

Watson with mockery: "We've noticed you don't use a specific fighting technique, you just walk towards your opponents and smash them with your body, how didn't they teach a warrior like yourself who conquer planets all by himself to fight?"

Miracuro: "I was one of the few"

Miracuro gets a flashback from his home planet

Miracuro is a child, his parents had just registered him to the warriors training to be a conquer

His trainer: "Hmm, after scanning your son, he has a stronger body and shape more than the other kids in the class, he will be amazing and trust that"

First day of the training...

The trainer: "Listen up warriors, today is the fighting day, every pair of warriors will have a solo fight in front of all of us"

The first two children are standing in front of each other with the other students watching carefully with the trainer between them

The trainer flies away and shouts: "FIGHT!"

The fight starts

Warrior 1 returns back and dashes towards warrior 2 but warrior 2 jumps above him then they both dash at each other and holds each other's hand and tries hard to push away the other

Warrior 2 flies in the air and grabs warrior 1 and he spins around then throws him on the floor and then lands strongly on him granting the win to warrior 2

The next fight starts

The little warriors are keeping the fight as bare-handed fight with the faster to land a punch on the other's face first

They are very quick, one of them jumped backwards but the other found a chance and jumped after him quickly and as soon as the other landed on the floor, the other's fist landed on his face throwing him out of the building granting his win

Fights are happening, round after round, blood is spreading everywhere and the trainer is happy seeing his trainees in the field every one of them is fighting his way to success

It's Miracuro's turn, he stands in front of his opponent with the trainer between them, they are looking in each other's eyes the other kid has psycho looks, Miracuro is a little afraid from the fight

The trainer flies and shouts "FIGHT!"

Once the fight has begun the kid landed a punch on Miracuro's face

Miracuro fell on the floor, the kid jumped high to fall on him but Miracuro noticed him and dashed away in the last moment

The kid dashes to Miracuro and starts trying to land punches but Miracuro is evading away until the kid pushes him with one hand and Miracuro is pushed backwards, the kid jumps towards Miracuro and hits him with his knee on Miracuro's teeth, the blood is everywhere and Miracuro is in pain

The trainer: "COME ONE MIRACURO, YOU'RE STRONGER THAN HIM!"

Miracuro gets up and looks at the kid, the kid dashed to him but Miracuro moves a bit to the right as the kid lands on the floor, Miracuro dashes towards him and punches him on his face, flipping him in the air multiple times until he hit the wall

Miracuro won the fight with one punch

The trainer to Miracuro's parents: "I can sign him up directly, he doesn't need any training"

Miracuro's mother: "I think he will need more training"

The trainer: "No he doesn't, he just needs a morale boost and he will be the best warrior ever"

In the present...

They enter a training center where there is a trainer

Miracuro: "A human is going to train me?"

Watson: "The fighting art doesn't depend on the human being"

Miracuro is not very convinced

Watson: "Hello Jack, this is the guy I spoke to you about"

Jack shook Miracuro's hand and says: "Greeting, Miracle"

Miracuro: "Thank you but my name is..."

Watson: "OKAY Miracle I will leave you two to start the training"

Jack: "Okay Miracle, tell me about yourself, did you learn any martial art?"

Miracuro remembers the kid he had smashed in the 1v1 dual and sees how the kid looked at him with oppression and says: "No"

Jack: "Ok, that's a start, so for you to know I will have these two guys with me"

Two of the trainees walks In

Jack: "Consider us the same person, so that we can mimic the speed of your people and they know what to do ok?"

Miracuro: "Ok"

Jack is holding an apple on his hand

Jack: "did you ever hear of the art of distraction"

Miracuro: "Actually not"

Jack: "How about now!"

Jack throws the apple on Miracuro as hard as he can

The apple hits Miracuro but also a punch lands on Miracuro's face by one of Jack's helpers

Jack: "I distracted you to focus on the apple so that you wouldn't notice my friend over here"

Miracuro: "Mhmm, brilliant"

Jack: "Not brilliance, you just see look of the best way to hit yourself and execute it on the enemy"

ON PLANET DOMINARA

On a planet of conquerors, people with special abilities, a big and modern civilization gathered its science and data across galaxies and a lot of different histories and lives were either destroyed due to the resistance or was enslaved due to giving up

In the investigation center...

A dominarian: "Sir, we've sent a soldier to the planet E61, his name is Miracuro, he reported that he reached the planet over three days ago, but since then, no replies, we've sent messages, no responses came back"

The master: "Send 'Ob' he's a good soldier, let him go to E61 and investigate the disappearance of Miracuro and then take down planet E61 together, if Miracuro is injured or dead then he take his revenge and destroy this planet!"

Later...

A knock on the door and a dominarian enters

The dominarian inside: "Hello Ob, Sit"

Ob sits on the chair

Ob is a bald person with a goatee and a huge muscle, bigger than Miracuro's, he seems like a crazy person, a true conqueror

Ob: "Greetings Master Gru, I knew from your message that I've been assigned a task"

Ob is a person who speaks with very calm and reasonable voice but deep down there is a crazy psycho that no one knows about but him, its in his eyes but you can't catch it, his muscles is submerged with blood of innocent people but you can't see it due to its cleanliness

Master Gru: "Correct, and now we will talk about the plan, your main goal is to retrieve back Miracuro, the soldier that was sent to E61 before you, y..."

Ob: "Wait, may you say that name again?"

Gru: "Miracuro?"

Ob: "Yes, this Miracuro, the kid that slipped away from the training?"

Gru: "Yes, I remember that I didn't see any training records linked to him so, maybe yes"

Ob stands up from the chair and says: "I apologize Master Gru, I cannot do this mission"

Gru: "Since when you get to decide which mission to be assigned to?"

Ob: "Never, but this guy, I hate him, I can't rescue him, I hope he rotes on E61"

Gru: "So, I understood from you that you let an old personal problem get inside your job?"

Ob: "It's not like that, I just..."

Gru: "Ob, you're like a son to me, don't make me regret that"

Ob sits back on the chair

Ob: "I'm sorry Master"

Gru: "Your priority is to rescue Miracuro, not conquering E61, if you've found Miracuro, if he's in a good health you add E61 to our dominarian empire, if he's injured or dead you destroy the planet, if you didn't find him you conquer the planet is that clear?"

Ob: "Clear Master Gru"

Ob stands off the chair and gets ready to leave

Gru: "Hey Ob, why do you hate Miracuro so much?"

Ob remembers when he was a child, he is smashed onto the wall fallen on the ground looking at the kid Miracuro with hate

Ob: "An old personal problem"

Next day on Dominara, three months on earth...

Ob is standing on the ground and looks to the sky

The control unit: "Ready Ob?"

Ob remembers how he looked to Miracuro that day when Miracuro broke him, knowing that he must forget the past and focus on retrieving back a person of his own people

Ob: "I am ready"

Control unit: "Opening the worm hole in three, two, one"

A big worm hall is opened in the sky, it looks like a shred in the dimension with no colors, just a distortion of the sky

Ob lowers down and flexes his legs strongly preparing for a strong jump into a mission and into his memories

Ob jumps and flies like he is a part of the air molecules and in an unnoticed time he enters the portal and the portal shuts down

Ob is flying across galaxies in that work hall, he sees billions of stars and planets everywhere around him and he flies as fast as he can to reach the destination

Finally, after seconds Ob gets out of the hole and he's next to a planet with a ring around it, he looks over and sees the planet E61 and he explodes forward to it with unstoppable velocity

ON PLANET EARTH

A worker: "EVERYBODY MOVE BACK NOW!!"

A HUGE Road Header is out of control in a construction site

Everyone is panicked and the workers shouting for clearing the place

Miracle shows up in the site

On the comms in Miracle's ears: "Report?"

Miracle: "It's a road header went mad it destroys everything and moves randomly I'll see what I can do about it"

The road header has a giant rotating cutting head covered with sharp metal picks like teeth

The road header was heading towards a residential building, if the cutting head touched the building it would tear it apart along with everyone inside the building

Miracle runs towards the road header and grabs it from a teeth and pulls it into another direction and flies upward while holding it putting it on its back then Miracle holds the metal that stabilizes the cutting header and splits it then grabs it and the other metal from the other side is broken and he finally detached the cutting header from the road handler

Miracle lands on the ground and charges his legs and then he tore across the ground and exploded upwards towards the road handler's motor and gets out from the other side damaging out the handler and immediately shutting it down

Miracle was standing happily that he finally saved lives and he get to compensate for his mistakes, the countless of lives that he ended

Suddenly he hears a clapping sound behind him and mobile phones were recording the moments where he saved the day

This made Miracle happier and happier about this accomplishment

A woman: "What to call you?"

Miracle: "Miracu..."

Miracle thinks for a second and decides to give away this person and stick to: "Miracle, you can call me Miracle"

The fans takes photos with him and Miracle happily takes all the shots

Later...

Watson: "It has been around 5 months, I hope you've been stronger by now"

Miracle: "What do you think?"

Watson smiles to Miracle

Watson: "Tell me, do you all have the same super powers?"

Miracle: "As dominarians?"

Watson: "Yes"

Miracle: "No, every dominarian of us is born with powers based on his parent's DNA, I was born with super speed, strength and a weak ability of flying"

Watson: "How weak?"

Miracle: "I can't maintain a stable flying process, from what I know, a flier can use all of his body cells to fly and redirect with, the flier can use his hand to fly with and travel with it, only his hand!, for me I can only use my inner part to fly with and it's hard to keep flying stable, but I can fly very fast as long as I don't need to change directions quickly, it wouldn't be very hard for me"

Watson: "Hmm, tell me more"

Miracle: "There is this super power, the best of them all and the worst for us, deflection"

Watson: "Hmm?"

Miracle: "A deflector is simply a person that you can't hurt or damage"

Watson: "How so, they've got quick reflexes?"

Miracle: "No, their body's structure differs from any other dominarian, when you put your finger on his muscle and try to push through, instead of having your finger inside his muscle, the muscle pushes your finger away"

Miracle gets a flashback on Dominara

Miracuro is in a watching a wrestling match between two dominarians, one of them is a deflector

The match starts

The dominarian dashes to the deflector and tries to hit him

The dominarian lands a punch on the deflectors face but the deflector didn't move an inch while the dominarian felt with the punch on his hand and holds his hand with screams of pain

The dominarian jumps and uses his leg to hit the deflector with it but when he did he felt a piercing clang inside of his leg and he falls on the ground announcing the winning of the deflector without having to do anything or even move from his place

Watson: "Wow, do you have any plans against a guy like that?"

Miracle: "Frankly, not"

Watson gets a call from the facility

The caller: "Sir, there's an activity towards earth, looks like it's a dominarian heading towards our atmosphere"

Watson: "Are y..."

Watson didn't see Miracle in front of him

Miracle is tearing through the air to confront that dominarian in so much focus, he love this world and he don't want it to be destroyed

A voice inside of Miracle: "I can't afford losing this world, but how can I stop them? If I could stand a dominarian I can't stand a whole army of dominarians on our planet here, on earth..."

Miracle and Ob are standing in front of each other

When Ob looks into Miracle's eyes he sees the eyes of the child that beat him up as a kid but he decided to move on

Ob: "Ah good, you're here and alive"

Miracle doesn't answer him

Ob: "Come one we've got a job to do"

Ob turns around heading to the highest building on earth

Miracle: "NO"

Ob: "What did you say?"

Miracle: "I said no"

Ob: "You were sent here to do a mission and you went missing then I was sent here to complete the mission and search for you, the orders was to search for you primarily but I really don't care about you, but you're alive which frustrated me and now you're saying NO?"

Miracle: "Yes"

Ob: "Have you got any idea of what treason you're committing?"

Miracle: "I do"

Ob: "Then, I will consider you as a dead person and I will destroy this planet according to my orders and I will KILL anyone who tries to resist"

Miracle: "Do your worst"

Ob unleashes supersonic flight towards Miracle and holds him

Ob flies across the planet while holding Miracle but Miracle hits Ob on his back with his elbow to free him self

They look at each other and Miracle hits Ob on his face pushing him away

Ob wasn't pushed back so far

Ob: "You've gotten weak"

Miracle: "I didn't"

Ob: "Hmm, you're right"

Ob looks at the civilians and says: "You just need the right motivation"

Miracle understands him and sees the willing of hurting those innocents in Ob's eyes

Ob flies towards the civilians but Miracle catches him from his side and holds his hand throwing him off to a building

No seconds passes, Miracle saw Ob flying to him madly but Miracle dodges him

Suddenly Ob changes direction and to Miracle and punches him hardly on his back

Miracle felt so much pain on his back as if there are bones being shattered inside him

Ob holds Miracles head preventing him from flying away then smashes him on the ground

Ob whispers: "You know? I've always wanted a rematch, you've given me the chance and I thank you for it, I truly am"

Miracle remembered who this guy is, and sees himself again standing in front of the kid he just beat as a kid

Miracle punches Ob on his hand's inner elbow and flipped Ob next to him and flew while holding Ob's hand and spin himself in the air smashing Ob on the ground several times then threw him to the air and then Miracle flew towards him they look at each other

Blood started to flow out of their noses and bruises starts showing up on their bodies

Ob: "My turn"

Ob charges towards Miracle and punches him on his stomach then on his face following by a punch on Miracle's head pushing him downwards

Ob sliced through the sky towards Miracle on the ground and lands a strong kick on him

Ob punches Miracle on the face more than six punches to weaken him down

Miracle's face is screwed

Watson from a comm in Miracle's ear: "MIRACLE, TAKE HIM INTO THE PACIFIC OCEAN"

Miracle focuses and straightens his hand and plants it under Ob's chest from the left side

Ob screams in pain, Miracle dig his hands into Ob's body

Blood started to gets out from Ob's body profusely as Miracle moves his hand inside Ob randomly

Ob is trying to fly but he can't control himself

It's so painful

Miracle holds Ob's chest bones and then flies towards the Pacific Ocean

Ob is screaming in pain, he feels as if Miracle is holding his soul in his hand

After seconds, they reached the Pacific Ocean, Miracle rotates like he's charging a strong throw then he throws Ob smashing him into the ocean

Miracle takes his breath

Ob is down in the water unconscious

Watson: "Is he dead?"

Miracle: "I don't kn..."

Miracle suddenly gets a punch from Ob on his face pushing him away

Then Ob flies towards him and punches him throwing him further then punches him again and again and again in anger

Ob's head is glowing red and all of his veins are popping out in all of his body from the anger

Miracle flies out in another direction then rotates and punches Ob on his body pushing him away while in the air

Miracle: "WHY DID YOU BRING ME HERE?"

Watson: "A nuclear missile is being prepared to be shot at this guy"

Miracle: "WHAT N..."

A strong punch on Miracle's face from Ob

Miracle: "NO WAIT! WATSON DON'T SHOOT A"

Ob grabs Miracle and they starts flying together and says: "Wait? I've always waited for this, don't talk to me about patience"

Miracle: "NO, YOU DON'T UNDERSTAND"

Ob punches Miracle on his face multiple times

While Miracle is being punched, Watson: "The nuclear missile is ready, keep the fight in the ocean you're heading towards Africa"

Miracle holds Ob's hand and kicks him away

Miracle: "DON'T SHOOT THE NEUCLEAR MISSILE!"

Watson: "Why! We must kill this thing"

Miracle is punching Ob on his face and shouts: "YOU'RE NOT GOING TO K..."

Ob: "Who are you talking to?"

Ob uses both of his hands to punch Miracle in both of his ears then uses the first two fingers and insert them into Miracle's ears deeply and Miracle screams out loud in pain with blood getting out of his ears

Ob: "Oh, I found it"

Ob grabs out the comm from Miracle's left ear and it falls in the ocean

The comm forms a red circle around it from Miracle's ear blood

They are already near a beach in Africa

Ob punches Miracle as strong as he can on his face and screams: "JUST FUCKING GIVE AWAY AND DIE, YOU ALREADY KNOW THAT THESE PEOPLE ARE DOOMED"

Miracle: "NOOOOO"

Miracle pushes him away in anger and punches him randomly in his body

Ob holds Miracle's hands and looks into the people who are in the beach and says: "Hmm, let me prove it to you"

Ob punches Miracle away

Ob flies very fast to the beginning of the Angolian beach and then uses his hands as a sword and stretches them in both sides and flies between the people cutting them all in half

Miracle sees the yellow beautiful beach turned red and Ob is still going and slicing them

Miracle's eyes are glowing red from the anger and flew at breakneck speed towards Ob and grabs him from the waist and both of them falls on the ground then Miracle holds him from the neck with the left hand and punches him on his face with the right

Ob's head is half buried in the sand from Miracle's punches

In the facility

A person: "Sir, shall we fire or not?"

Watson: "We've lost the comms so we can't track them, send multiple jets around the last known location in the Pacific Ocean and tell me as soon as you find them! And call me a helicopter"

In the beach

Miracle and Ob are standing in front of each other, blood is everywhere around them, their own blood are spreading their bodies, Ob's body is covered in red due to the people he has killed

Ob: "I would call this a rematch"

Miracle grits his teeth in anger

Ob: "I will take this as an accept, FIGHT!!"

Miracle launches towards Ob and uses his knee to kick him hardly on Ob's teeth

Ob is a little bewildered from the kick but he evades the second punch that came from Miracle and punches him twice on his chest and then holds Miracle's neck and hits him on his head using his own head then holds his hand then lifts him and smashes him on the sand

Miracle uses his super speed to run away from Ob and then runs back to him as fast as he can and jumps then uses his both hands to form a fist then hits him with his hands on his chest, Ob is thrown on the floor and Miracle is on the ground behind him

Quickly Miracle returns and kicks him on the back of his head using his instep flipping Ob on his belly

Miracle sticks both of his hands as one object and hits Ob on the back of his head as strong as he can

Miracle successfully knocked out Ob and starts taking deep breath to calm himself down

Miracle looks back and sees a helicopter with Watson standing inside it and looks at Miracle proudly

The helicopter lands in front of Miracle

Miracle in anger: "DON'T YOU EVER TAKE A FUCKING DECISION WITHOUT MY PERMISSION!"

Watson: "HEY, WATCH YOUR LANGUAGE, I will never wait for your permission I'm the GENERAL!"

Miracuro: "WELL, I'M THE FUCKING DOMINARIAN HERE, I CONTROL THE FLOW OF THE FIGHT NOT YOU PATHETIC HUMAN!"

Watson: "HOW DARE YOU SPEAK TO ME LIKE THAT!"

Ob is opening his eyes

Miracuro: "I CAN SPEAK TO YOU WITH WHATEVER WAY I PLEASE, because I can fucking rip you in half with just a finger!"

A soldier: "Ah, guys? Something is going on here"

Miracuro looks to the soldier who points to Ob who's standing on his legs and looking to them

Miracuro dashes towards him and punches him in the face throwing him on the ground and keeps punching him one after another, with a very strong crazy punches, he lost his mind, now he is Miracuro not Miracle

Miracuro stands up and puts his leg on Ob, preventing him from moving

Ob puts his hands next to him surrendering to his loss

Ob: "Okay, I give up"

Ob pushes Miracle's leg with his hands and says: "Get your leg off me!"

Ob stands up with all of the guns are pointed towards him

Miracle: "It's okay, he gave up, you can lower your weapons"

Watson: "Keep your guns pointed towards this asshole"

Ob: "Your guns can't hurt me and you know that"

Miracle: "It makes them feel safe"

Ob: "Do you think you're really safe? Do you think he can protect you? He defeated me now, but he can't outstand an army of us, he now has two choices, One: To kill me right here and right now and my home planet will send an army to investigate the disappearance of not one but TWO of the greatest dominarian warriors, or two: he can spare my life and I will go back to Dominara and I will also come back with an army and take him and your planet down, it's his choice, either ways you're doomed!"

Miracle: "You're finished?"

Ob looks at him

Miracle runs towards him and holds him from his shoulders and sprints towards the sea, and they both disappears

Days later...

Watson: "Still no sign of him?"

A soldier: "No, sir"

Watson: "Where the hell did they go and how come we can't see them in our satellites! We've seen Ob coming towards earth before he even reached the atmosphere"

In a Lab called 'Groove labs'

Through the thick glass window, a team of scientists stood in awed silence, their pens hovering over notebooks Beyond the barrier stretched an endless expanse of lush, prehistoric parkland Suddenly, the ground trembled Emerging from the foliage, a colossal T-rex dinosaur lumbered past, its shadow swallowing the observers whole The scientists leaned forward, eyes wide, hastily scribbling notes as though afraid to miss a single detail A hush of reverence filled the room fascination painted across every face as they watched the living giant, a miracle of another age, stride before them

In the same time, they hear a very strong ROOOARR! Coming from the skies, they look up to the sky and see a big flying dinosaur, its wings are hiding the lamps inside the simulated park like he's the ruler of this kingdom

The park isn't real, it's a simulated park inside Groove labs with lamps in the top that simulates the living for the dinosaurs while the scientists are studying them

One of the scientists leaves the room while his hands are shaking from the giant creatures he just saw

He goes to the manager's office

Manager: "Hey Jack, have a seat"

Jack: "Hello Mister, I'm sorry for this unexpected meeting"

Manager: "No, no, no, no, it's okay, tell me what you want?"

Jack: "I'm afraid"

Manager: "Afraid of what?"

Jack: "I'm afraid of these creatures"

Manager: "You mean the dinosaurs?"

Jack: "Yes, do you know what would happen if they somehow broke out of this simulation"

Manager: "That's never gonna happen"

Jack: "Just imagine the amount of destruction that would happen until the government kill them all"

Manager: "No need to imagine just do your job, know your limits and don't you ever talk to me about that again or to your colleagues we are supported by all of the world for this masterpiece don't try to talk to me out of it, you're dismissed"

Jack looks at the manager and leaves silently knowing that it's just a matter of time until those creatures kill them all

Days later...

In the facility

Miracle is flying above the facility

He looks very bad and angry

Watson gets out on the roof and says: "About time!"

Miracle lands on the roof in front of Watson

Miracle: "Hey, Watson"

Watson: "Hello, Miracle"

Miracle: "How's things?"

Watson: "Everything is okay, where have you been?"

Miracle: "I was honoring my friend"

Watson: "Honor him? He killed innocent people"

Miracle: "I was honoring him as a dominarian, he died doing his duty not yours so yeah he deserves to be honored"

Watson: "You have fans across the social media, and haters too"

Watson give his phone to Miracle and Miracle scrolls

A woman: "He saved us from an alien"

A man: "He's an alien and I don't like him!"

A woman: "He's pretty sexy though"

A man: "Ever since he got here, he started bringing aliens after him"

Miracle gives the phone back to Watson and says: "I don't want to hear them, I just want to figure out somethings"

Watson: "Hey, why did you refused firing a nuclear missile?"

Miracle: "You would've caused a radiation above the sea and it wouldn't be enough to kill us either, so you would've shot it for nothing regarding that there is a possibility that the missile will damage me too, but prepare it for later"

Watson: "Ok"

Miracle flies away

In a café...

Miracle lands in front of a café and his friends are in there

He hugs them all and sits they start talking and laughing till the end of the day

In someplace...

Someone: "Sir, but he defended the earth from the conqueror who came here a few days ago"

The leader: "Yes, Johnny I'm aware of that but who bring him here in the first place? Its him, right?"

Johnny: "Mhmm right, Mr Alex"

Alex: "So, he's the real danger and we must take Miracle down"

Johnny: "But how exactly we're going to hurt him, as the videos we have no missiles or weapons, even a person like him couldn't defeat him"

Alex: "Since when something was standing in our face?"

Few days later at groove labs...

The manager: "Reports?"

A scientist: "By the time the dinosaurs became so aggressive and they are starting to fight each other and they stopped eating the food we throw to them they prefer to eat each other, the strongest eats the weakest, the predator is eating the plants-eaters"

The manager: "We must split them to keep them alive, spread the gas"

Multiple holes in the park starts spreading gas in the place profusely forcing all of the dinosaurs to fall asleep

The scientists and workers with their prepared cars to move the dinosaurs went inside to start working

After minutes a worker is standing in front of the T-rex's huge eye

Jack is in his office studying the dinosaurs, a colleague of him enters the place

The colleague: "Hello, Jack"

Jack: "Hey, Finn"

Finn: "What are you doing?"

Jack: "Studying the aggressive change of behavior for the dinosaurs"

Finn: "They are already moving them now"

Jack: "What?"

Finn: "You don't know? They are splitting them to prevent them from eating each other"

Jack: "WHAT? WHAT'S THE AMOUNT OF THE DOSE!"

Finn: "Same as the last time I think"

Jack: "OHHH FUCKKK!"

Jack runs out of his office to the security room and pushes the guard away the guard: "Hey!"

Jack: "Sorry, no time to explain"

Jack goes to the public mic and starts a broadcast across the whole lab

The man that was standing in front of the T-rex's eye looks behind him and sees the big huge eye of the T-rex is opened and looks at him with red and anger

Jack: "EVERYONE LEAVE THE DINOSAURS PARK AND SEAL THE DOORS WHILE YOU STILL CAN IF YOU WANT TO LIVE! I REPEAT THE DINOSAURS WILL WAKE UP!!"

It's too late

They woke up

The groove labs uses the drugs to give them a chance to feed them to add food to them in there so the dinosaurs always wakes up to see a lot of feed waiting for them

This time wasn't very different, the dinosaurs woke up and found a fresh food waiting for them

The worker is standing in front of the T-rex, the T-rex is looking at him with hunger and with saliva drilling off its mouth

A ton of workers inside the park

Jack: "It's too late, SEAL THE DOORS!"

The manager: "Our people are still in there"

Jack: "OUR PEOPLE ARE DEAD NOW! SEAL THE DOORS OR YOU WILL FORCE DEATH TO ALL THE PEOPLE OF EARTH"

A security guard pulls out his gun and shoots the manager in his arm and tells Jack: "Do what you've got to do"

The manager falls on the floor screams in pain

Jack runs towards the Manager's computer and starts sealing the doors

People are running from the dinosaurs towards the doors and they start tapping roughly on the doors begging for someone to open them

Jack's eyes starts tearing up from hearing their voices and keeps saying: "I'm so sorry, I'm so sorry, I'm so sorry"

The guard: "Why don't you shoot that gas again and we will go in and save them"

Jack: "We can't, we don't have any drugs in the tanks"

Every one in the lab is hearing the screams of the workers inside

A scientist takes off a gun from the guard and points it towards Jack and tells him: "Get away from the computer"

Jack: "Don't do something stupid you will force death to ALL THE PEOPLE OF EARTH!"

The scientist: "I don't give a fuck; my friends are in there"

Jack: "It's not so easy for me either but..."

The scientist shoots but a guard quickly holds his hand and the bullet doesn't hit Jack

The guard is trying to knock the scientist down

More scientists and guards join the fight, they are all hitting each other, a scientist doesn't want the people inside to die and the other wants to live

A guard punches the scientist that had the gun in his hand but the guards then gets knocked down by another guard

A scientist jumps on that guards back trying to choke him and the guard is resisting but he's knocked down

Several punch after punch, Jack is screaming telling them to stop

Chaos is everywhere in the lab

People are getting eaten alive from an uncontrollable beast

The team that wants to open the door won...

The scientist that started this went to the computer

Jack: "No, no, NO!"

The scientist punched Jack on his face and opened the doors

But it's too late...

All of the people are dead

The green and beautiful park became a red park that smelled death

And the dinosaurs got out of the park breaking through the lab and gets out of the groove labs into the streets smashing the cars in its way and hits the buses with their tails

Several types of dinosaurs, small dinosaurs but fast and strong, flying dinosaurs, huge slow dinosaurs A TRIBE OF DINOSAURS

They spread across the city

The mayor: "Put the city on lock-down, no one gets in, no one gets out"

The hero shows up in front of the sun

DAY ONE

The hero is descending slowly and then moves his focus to the Big T-rex because it runs after the people in order to eat them and its smashing everything in front of it

Miracle dashes towards it and punches it on its face throwing it the other way, then he turns around for it and punches it from down its face flipping it on its back

The T-rex flips on his side and stands up

Miracle dashes to it trying to land a punch on its face but the T-rex turns around and hits him with its tail throwing him across multiple buildings

Miracle is shocked from its strength

Miracle returns back to the fight and starts punching it randomly on its body in order to weaken it but its skin is very solid and rough the punch can't deal so much damage to it

On a roof top of the groove labs...

Jack is standing on it

Jack: "MIRACLE!"

Miracle hears him so he looks at him but the T-rex took that as a chance and tried to eat Miracle

Miracle is now between the teeth of the T-rex

He's holding it from the teeth blocking it from locking on him

Miracle is feeling intense pain and shouts hardly

Watson on the ground shoots with a bazooka on the T-rex's body

The T-rex looks at Watson but it doesn't care, the bazooka didn't affect it anyway and it still tries to eat Miracle

But suddenly, a strong person lands a rough punch on the T-rex's eye and plants it inside then squeezes everything to make the T-rex leaves Miracle alone

The T-rex shouts and throws Miracle out of its mouth and bounces back then Miracle falls on the ground

Watson looks at the person who saved Miracle in anger while the person is going to Miracle to wake him up

IT IS OB

Ob: "Get up, Miracuro, GET UP!"

Watson: "How the fuck are you still alive!"

Watson points with the bazooka on Ob

Ob: "A long story, we both have a problem now, I suggest you point it down and wake him up while I go back to this thing"

Watson thinks for seconds then puts the bazooka aside and goes to Miracle

Miracle wakes up and tells Watson: "He's with us now, I will tell you later, now I need your army to take down the dinosaurs that doesn't eat humans and feed on plants because they're destroying the place too and also those small dinosaurs are dangerous and they're eating humans too, and have jets around to take down the flying dinosaurs"

Miracle gets up and flies to the groove labs rooftop and approaches Jack

Jack: "Hello, Miracle, I'm jack, I'm a scientist in this place, me and my team are now developing a poison for these creatures but it will take around two days"

Miracle with anger: "You created those creatures?!"

Jack sadly: "I tried to stop them, here take these comms we will be in contact through them I will help you"

Miracle wears the comm and flies to Ob and the T-rex

Ob and the T-rex...

Ob: "COME ONNNN I'VE FOUGHT MONESTERS LIKE YOU A LOT!"

Ob charges his punch and punches It hardly on its nose

Miracle reached them

Ob: "It's about time"

Miracle: "Sorry for the late, we must occupy it until those scientists create a poison to murder them, you go fly and kill any flying dinosaurs and leave this one for me"

Ob shoots his way through the sky to kill any flying dinosaurs

Miracle: "Now come on asshole!"

The T-rex shouts very loud at Miracle

Jack: "Miracle, focus on its belly"

Miracle: "Got it!"

Miracle went under it, the T-rex tried to press on him with its leg

But Miracle dodges and punches it on its belly hardly

The T-rex shouts and looks like he's really damaged from this punch

Miracle turns around and holds its tongue then grabs it across a street then punch it on its another eye

The T-rex bytes Miracle from his leg and tries to eat him

Miracle punches the T-rex on its teeth using his elbow to free himself then he grabs that weak teeth out of its mouth then plants it in the inner part of its leg forcing it down

The T-rex falls on the ground unconscious

Ob...

Ob is flying next to the jets and waves “Hi” to them then he dashes out towards a flying group of huge dinosaurs

Ob outflies them and stands in front of them then he dashes through the head of the group tearing it apart leaving it to fall on the ground from the skies

All of the dinosaurs attacks him and he uses his enhanced flying abilities to dodge them and lands a quick punch at them

Ob grabs the tail of one of them and hits the others with it

A jet shoots a missile towards them and Ob throws the dinosaur at it creating a massive explosion

Ob: “OHHH THAT’S CRAZY, LET’S DO THIS ASSHOLES”

Ob dashes towards them all in a crazy way

Miracle...

Miracle lands in front of the T-rex and shouts in happiness: “HA! THAT’S WHAT HAPPENS WHEN YOU TRY TO EAT ME MOTHERFUCKER!”

Miracle turns around and says: “Jack, you may not need to...”

The T-rex opens its eye again in anger and shouts then stands up

Jack: “May not need to what?”

Miracle in fear: “Nothing, keep doing what you doing”

The T-rex attacks Miracle but Miracle flies and runs away across the street and the T-rex is after him and shouts so hard and destroys the building around with its tail and arms

Lots of people are about to die because of the destruction that the T-rex had done

Miracle: "OB, I NEED YOU DOWN NOW! PEOPLE ARE ABOUT TO DIE, I WANT YOU TO COME NOW AND LIFT THIS MONSTER FAR AWAY FROM HERE AND I WILL SAVE THEM"

Ob: "COMINGGG!!"

Ob lands from the sky covered in blood of the dinosaurs

Just as the T-rex was about to catch Miracle from his legs it suddenly stopped, it was Ob, lifting it from its tail and flew with it far away

Miracle ran towards the buildings destroyed because of the T-rex and the others

Miracle keeps saving them from falling and uses his super speed to move through the buildings and saves children and the people inside

After finishing Miracle lays on the ground catching his breath

Ob approaches him

Ob: "It was a lot easier if we conquer the place"

Miracle looks at him

Ob: "Just kidding"

Miracle: "Watson, how're you holding up?"

Watson...

Soldiers are forming circles around the dinosaurs and shoots them having also the dinosaurs size is small and they massacre them

Watson: "We might need some help"

Miracle: "Alright, me and Ob are coming now"

A soldier is shooting a dinosaur and it saw him the dinosaur clashes towards the soldier and jumps facing its mouth towards its neck but it was surprised by a punch breaking off its face

It's Miracle

Ob: "Miracuro?"

Miracle: "What"

Ob: "Behind you"

Miracle turns around and sees a whole number of dinosaurs in front of them

Ob: "Ready?"

Miracle: "Let's do this!"

Miracle stormed towards them and Ob blazed faster than the eye can follow towards them

Punches are planted on the dinosaurs' bodies

A dinosaur catches Ob's hand

Ob screams from the dinosaur's sharp teeth and strong jaw

Miracle holds both ends of its jaw and opens its mouth up too much

Blood and bullets are spread everywhere

Miracle and Ob are covered in blood

They lay on the ground resting

Miracle: "Ob"

Ob: "Yeah?"

Miracle: "Remember what you said about conquering the place?"

Ob: "Yes?"

Miracle: "It's actually a pretty good idea"

DAY TWO

The mayor is in a meeting with the president

The mayor: "The situation is almost occupied, we have shelters away from the dinosaurs territories and teams with soldiers that are spread across the city searching for survivors"

The president: "And the superheroes?"

The mayor: "Yes, Miracle and Ob are doing their best in saving the biggest number of people and we're now awaiting the groove labs for making the poison"

The president: "Good, tell me if anything comes up"

The mayor: "Ok, sir"

They hang up

Watson: "Don't worry mister mayor, it's all going to be alright"

The mayor: "I hope so"

In the streets 9:31 pm

In a dark place a dinosaurs are walking in there watching over the place

They are full now, they ate all they could

The human corps are thrown all over the place

Some are resting, others are keeping an eye out

After all they are a crew that watches over each other

Jack: "No wonder they lived-on earth for millions of years"

Miracle is with four soldiers

Miracle whispers: "You see that, in this building there are people up there, I will distract them and you go up there to grab them"

A soldier: "Yes, sir"

Miracle: "I prefer 'Miracle'"

The soldier: "Ok, Miracle"

Miracle gets out of their hide and stands behind them

Miracle: "HEY! WHY DON'T YOU PICK UP SOMEONE YOUR SIZE!"

The dinosaurs shout and runs towards Miracle and Miracle runs away from them distracting them off the street

After passing the street with a few blocks, Miracle stops and says:
"Now, let's talk"

Miracle jumps at them tearing through their bodies with his hands

Miracle extracts a light column and starts hitting them with it until they're all dead

Ob...

Miracle through the comms: "What's your situation?"

Ob: "I've flown over the entire city with the map and pointed to every big territory, there was only three big places that they all gather in and the others are just small gatherings and I've managed to kill them, there's only the last one and I'm above them now"

Miracle: "Good, do your thing"

Ob lands hardly on one of them smashing it with his fist lying on the floor farming aura

Ob spins with furious speed, a living tornado, dragging the dinosaurs into his storm from his hands, blades of light erupt echoes of the swords he once forged on the beach but now they tear away from him violently, as though each one is wrenched from his soul, a punishment for his sins

Ob lands on the ground

Miracle through the comm: "Ob? Ob?"

Ob doesn't hear Miracle right now

Ob takes a deep breath as he's forgiving himself for what he had done for the people he murdered on the beach of Africa

Miracle: "OB!?"

Ob: "Yes?"

Miracle: "Shit, where were you?"

Ob: "I'm heading back to the facility"

Miracle: "Ok, I'll meet you there"

In the facility...

Miracle: "We've saved as much civilians as we could, occupied them, and the dinosaurs spread around the city are dead, we now have only three territories will be attacked as soon as the poison is ready"

Watson: "God gives us strength for what lies ahead"

Ob: "I'm so tired"

Miracle: "Jack, how much longer?"

Jack: "Around 9 more hours from now"

Miracle: "Ok, it's already night, we need some rest to prepare, the real fight begins"

Miracle sets a timer on his phone after nighen hours and continues: "9 hours from now"

After a few hours...

Miracle is sleeping when he's suddenly awakened up by Ob who looks very nervous

Ob: "WAKE UP, Miracuro we've got reports of attacks!"

Miracle wakes up and says: "What? What attacking?"

Ob hands a phone to Miracle and on the phone it's a footage of the dinosaurs running towards the shelters and the facility

Miracle opens his phone and looks on the remaining time

1 hour left

Miracle: "Tell me about the tall dinosaurs that feed on plants"

Ob: "They were either killed by our soldiers or got eaten by the others"

Miracle: "We could've used them as a shield"

Ob: "Let's go we must stop them"

Miracle and Ob rushes outside

Watson: "They're attacking from three main streets"

Ob: "Is it every territory is sending troops?"

Watson: "Not at troops, it's all of them"

Miracle through the comm: "Jack, you better be ready"

Jack: "What! No, I need some more time!"

Miracle: "There is no time they're attacking us, hurry up we will try to hold them back"

Miracle hangs up with Jack

DAY THREE

Miracle: "We have three streets, I will be on one, Ob will be on the other and all of the military soldiers will be on the third, we will keep the soldiers street between me and Ob so that if anything happened we will be able to help them okay?"

Ob: "Okay"

Watson: "Okay"

Miracle: "Let's do it"

In the battlefield...

Miracle stands in front of the dinosaurs, a small dinosaurs with sharp teeth, a fat dinosaurs with horns

Miracle is holding a cup of water: "Do you know I didn't get the chance to drink water today?"

They shout!

Miracle throws the cup of water after drinking it and then jumps towards them

Ob lands in front of them and starts cracking his neck and hands then prepares and the dinosaurs shouts and he jumps towards them

In the middle street, a big number of tanks and soldiers with weapons are in front of the dinosaurs

In the sky, a team of jets are flying around the group of the flying dinosaurs

THE FIGHT BEGINS

Miracle crashes into the herd, fists blazing like hammers of steel He moves so fast the dinosaurs can't even track him one second in front, the next behind, breaking necks and smashing jaws The fat horned dinosaur charges with a roar, horns down like a living tank Miracle meets it head-on, his speed turning into momentum, his punch exploding against its skull The shockwave rips through the street, windows shatter, and the horn snaps clean in half as the beast tumbles sideways

Ob plants his feet in the middle of the ruined street, the cracked asphalt trembling under the weight of the charging dinosaurs His chest rises and falls, rage burning in his eyes The first creature lunges at him jaws wide, dripping with saliva but Ob sidesteps and drives his fist straight into its skull Bone shatters, and the beast collapses with a thunderous crash

Another one rushes in from the side Ob grabs it by the throat, muscles straining, and slams it against a broken car so hard the metal folds in half He doesn't pause his elbow crashes into a raptor's face, then his knee explodes upward, snapping its neck in one clean motion

More keep coming, claws scraping, teeth snapping Ob roars, meeting them head-on Every punch sends shockwaves through the ground, every kick tear through flesh and bone Blood sprays across the walls as Ob smashes his way down the street, holding the line alone with nothing but raw power and fury

The third street was held by the soldiers Guns thundered, rockets hissed through the air, and fire lit the night At first, they managed to hold formation, mowing down the smaller predators, but the ground shook with heavier footsteps Out of the smoke, massive spine dinosaurs charged the line, shrugging off bullets like dust The soldiers fired again and again explosions rocked the block, screams cut through the chaos, but the beasts kept coming The fight turned desperate, men being dragged into the jaws of monsters while others refused to back down, reloading with bloody hands

In the skies...

A pilot: "WE NEED A HAND UP HERE!"

Miracle: "OB!"

Ob: "Got it!"

Ob tears through the skies towards the dinosaurs

Above, Ob blazes down like a meteor, He smashes into a flying dinosaur mid-air, tearing it apart with his fists, then darts between two others before they can react He grabs both by the wings, twists, and slams them into each other until bones splinter Jets fire missiles around him, and Ob laughs wildly "FASTER!" before outpacing the missiles themselves, dragging a dinosaur straight into the explosion

Ob: "You're welcome!"

Watson: "Ob, you're needed back on the ground"

Ob: "Coming!"

Back on the ground, Miracle uses his super speed to weave through the small sharp-toothed dinosaurs swarming him They leap for his throat, his legs, his arms—Miracle spins, a blur of movement, ripping them apart one by one Blood covers his arms, but his eyes stay locked on the massive brontosaurus-like giant stomping toward the soldiers Miracle dashes, grabs its colossal tail, and with veins bulging in his arms, he lifts

it The soldiers gasp as he swings the massive beast into the side of a building, cracking its ribs before slamming it flat on the ground

Ob rockets down beside him, landing so hard the street cracks open
Dinosaurs circle them, dozens, maybe hundreds Ob wipes blood from his mouth and smirks

Ob: "You take left, I'll take right"

Miracle: "Race you"

They dash forward at the same time, their movements too fast for the human eye Ob rips through the air, his punches sounding like thunderclaps, each blow caving in skulls Miracle blitzes through the other side, grabbing one dinosaur mid-leap, spinning it like a weapon, and smashing ten others with it before hurling it into the distance

The ground is littered with corpses Blood flows in rivers Still, more dinosaurs come

One of the biggest horned monsters slams Ob into a building, its jaws locking on his arm Ob screams, his aura flaring he plants his foot on its chest, rips his arm free, and in a fury, tears the dinosaur's head clean off He roars as blood sprays over him

Miracle sees another group storming soldiers In a blur, he's there He holds one dinosaur's jaws apart with sheer strength, screaming as he forces its mouth wide open until the bones crack and split apart
Soldiers open fire, bullets ripping the rest to pieces

Miracle and Ob regroup, breathing heavy, bodies painted in red The street is nothing but smoke, fire, and carcasses

Ob: "This city's turning into hell"

Miracle: "Then let's be the devils they fear"

The dinosaurs roar again, another wave approaching Miracle cracks his knuckles, Ob cracks his neck

Together they storm forward, fists ready, blood and fire waiting for more

Miracle: "HOW MUCH LONGER!!"

Jack: "It's minutes from now!"

Miracle: "Okay, you better hurry"

After punches and tearing through strong bodies and rough skins

Finally

The last of the monsters collapsed, the battlefield fell eerily quiet
Smoke curled through the ruined streets, broken glass glinting in the faint light

Ob wiped blood from his cheek, breathing heavy

Ob: "What? That easy? I thought..."

He stopped

A thunderous BOOM echoed through the haze, followed by a ground-shaking tremor The smoke parted like a curtain torn open, and from within stepped a colossal silhouette

The T-Rex emerged Its scales gleamed with a sickly, dark sheen, its eyes burning like molten gold Each step crushed cars into twisted metal, each exhale sent waves of heat rolling through the wreckage The creature lifted its head and unleashed a roar so massive it rattled shattered windows and sent dust cascading from broken walls

Miracle's jaw tightened

Miracle: "...We're not done"

The T-Rex lunged

Ob charged first, blade flashing, but the beast's tail whipped across the street, slamming him through a storefront with bone-cracking force
Glass and debris rained down

Miracle met it head-on, fists pounding against its armored hide The impact echoed like hammers on steel—but the Rex barely flinched It snapped its jaws, teeth the size of swords, forcing Miracle to dodge desperately A second later, the T-Rex slammed its skull forward, sending Miracle tumbling across the cracked asphalt

The fight became chaos

Ob returned, darting around the beast, slashing at its legs, but every strike seemed shallow against its titanic hide

Miracle leapt onto its back, pummeling its neck with raw fury only for the Rex to thrash, smashing him into a crumbling building wall

The ground quaked with every step, the Rex owning the battlefield like a god of destruction

The T-Rex roared again and locked its blazing eyes on Miracle With terrifying speed, it lunged, jaws snapping shut around him Miracle strained, hands braced against its maw, pushing back with every ounce of strength, muscles trembling as rows of teeth inched closer to his face, blood of Miracle is falling on the ground as the teeth managed to shatter his back and his hands

Jack's voice pierced through the chaos

Jack: "NOW!"

From a rooftop, Jack hurled the poison bomb Time slowed the glass orb sailed through smoke, catching a faint glimmer of firelight before plunging straight into the T-Rex's open mouth

The orb exploded, flooding its throat with a churning cloud of toxic gas
The T-Rex staggered, choking, its roar now warped into a strangled howl Its eyes went wild, movements sluggish as the venom worked deep into its lungs

Miracle shoved free, rolling across the ground, coughing but alive

Ob spat blood, eyes narrowing

Ob: "Now it's OUR turn"

Both fighters surged forward

Ob slashed deep into the beast's legs, crippling its stance

Miracle hammered its skull with bone-shattering punches, over and over, cracking scales, spraying blood

The T-Rex reeled, struggling against dizziness, its massive frame swaying like a dying tower

Together, they unleashed a relentless fury strike after strike, blow after blow until the towering monster finally collapsed, the earth shaking as it hit the ground

Silence followed Dust floated through the air The T-Rex lay broken, its roars finally gone

Ob and Miracle stood over it, battered but unyielding

Ob, panting, gave a faint grin: "That... wasn't easy"

The big beast fell inside the city

A dead monster that was revived from the death millions of years ago

The angry beast got humiliated just because of the human's curiosity

They shake hands respectfully

Miracle flies to Jack

Jack: "It's done I guess"

Miracle: "Yeah"

Jack: "It's been a pleasure working with you"

Miracle: "It is, tell me, how did you get those dinosaurs, from what I know they were extinct from millions of years ago"

Jack: "They were, but 10 years ago we found frozen eggs in Antarctica, luckily they survived the meteor that ended their species"

Miracle: "Is there any more?"

Jack: "I don't know for sure, I will dig into it, but as far as I know, we didn't plant all the eggs we had, I will destroy them all"

Miracle: "It will be preferred"

Watson through the comm: "I guess we need some help in the clean-up"

Miracle: "Coming, now"

While cleaning up and gathering the corps of the dinosaurs

Miracle sees the corps of the plant eating dinosaurs with the bullets inside of them

They were not eating humans

Their only mistake was being in a place with very tiny streets for them to move freely, YET THEY SUFFERED

Watson: "I never understood, how is Ob helping us?"

Miracle: "I'll tell you"

Flashback from the beach...

Miracle: "You're finished?"

Ob looks at him

Miracle runs towards him and holds him from his shoulders and sprints towards the sea, and they both disappears

Ob: "Where are you taking me?"

Miracle doesn't respond to him, they reach the other part of the planet in Australia

They stop at a green beautiful place

Miracle: "You didn't ask yourself, what changed me?"

Ob: "I don't need to know or even think, you're just a traitor"

Miracle: "Come on Ob, you're better than that, you know I was one of the loyalists between you all, give yourself a chance to think"

Ob: "Because they look like us?"

Miracle: "At first, yes this is what stopped me, but focus on them Ob look at this family over there"

A family of a man is playing with his little daughter and the mother is feeding her son

Miracle: "Don't they deserve to live?"

Ob: "The person who deserves to live is the person who can't die"

Miracle: "That's what they've told us, but I beat you, twice, shall I kill you now?"

Ob: "Yes, because the life is a war and I've lost"

Miracle: "And I didn't murder you, because losing a battle in this war doesn't mean that you've lost the whole war! You still have a chance, a chance to fulfill your duty against the world, a chance to atone for your sins, I've killed lots of people and conquered hundreds of planets and I regret that so much that I can't sleep"

Ob is thinking about Miracle words

Miracle: "Give this world a chance, give yourself a chance, you're free to go, I won't kill you, if you don't want to make things right for yourself you can go, and get your army and kill me then destroy this planet in front of me"

Miracle hands a phone to Ob

Miracle: "Take this, you can contact me using it"

Ob looks at the family and watches their smiles and laughing and takes the phone from Miracle

Miracle gets up and dashes away from Ob and sits on a beach and starts crying as he remembers the people he had murdered

An old man approaches him

The old man: "Hey son"

Miracle wipes out his tears as he responds: "Hello"

The old man: "Why is the strong man sad?"

Miracle: "It's nothing, I just sinned a lot and I don't know how to make things right for it"

The old man: "Son, we all've sinned a lot, things we had done we despise ourselves and ask ourselves 'How did we do that?!' the part when you ask yourself that is the part you where you realize you've grown up and became a real man"

In the present...

Miracle: "He called me again and we've met several times of the several days we were missing in them"

Watson: "But how come we didn't see you guys in our radars?"

Miracle: "I don't know"

Ob lands from the sky

Ob: "I think we're done now"

Miracle: "we're not done yet, there is still a bigger threat, the main threat that threatens us all"

In the battlefield...

Alex and his helper are in the place where the T-rex was managing to eat Miracle, they pick up a blood sample from what was thrown on the ground when he was in the monster's mouth, Alex smiles in a villain way

Somewhere in the desert...

The manager of groove labs is in a very big warehouse standing in front of a big box with his hand in a handle because of the bullet he had in it

The big box is filled with BABY DRAGONS as they breath a small fire comes out of their mouths and other makes gases that forms a fire

The manager smiles and says: "I've got a bigger project"

CHAPTER ONE ENDS

CHAPTER TWO: FEAR

ON DOMINARA...

A dominarian: "And where are they now?"

Master Gru: "Missing, that's why I'm requesting another team"

The dominarian: "So, you sent a couple of our best dominarians and the GRAY TEAM and all of them went missing and now you're requesting another? NO, just add E61 to the prohibited areas"

Master Gru: "But,"

The dominarian: "I'm sorry my friend but your request is rejected"

Suddenly a strong sound of destruction near them happens they both stand up and flies out of the place to be surprised by what they're seeing

Two dominarian days ago, 6 earth months ago

ON EARTH...

A journalist woman standing in front of the ruins of the dinosaurs with a cameraman filming her while she's holding a mic

The journalist: "After three long days, only silence remains among the ruins, can it ever heal from the lives that were lost in The Long Sorrow? That answer will only be revealed through time and right now the hero called 'Miracle' and 'Ob' are helping the government rebuilding the city, we will try mapping out the news so, stay tuned"

Miracle and Ob are setting next to each other after a long day of cleaning dinosaurs corps and saving civilians

Miracle is looking at the sky and says: "How long you think they will send an army here?"

Ob: "Three months"

Miracle: "Why?"

Ob: "Time moves here faster, a dominarian day equals three earth months"

Miracle: "How did you calculate it?"

Ob: "When I was sent here, you've been here for nine months and they told me that it has been three days and the protocol says that if the second soldier went missing for two days, in this case this is me then the army will be sent and its already been three months for me in here meaning a dominarian day has passed, you didn't study that protocol did you?"

Miracle smiles and says: "You know I didn't"

After seconds, Miracle's face turns sad again and says: "I've always dreamed of the day that the destruction will be everywhere, a day where I stand and see an army of the strongest landing from the skies from a big worm hole flexing their arms, cracking their backs and arms and smiles with saliva flowing from their mouths desiring the blood of the people of earth"

It's night...

In a lab...

Dr Alex: "I mean you do know that it takes time and the city is still recovering from The Long Sorrow and I can't buy the requirements"

Dr Alex is speaking with Michel, the colleague of Miracle

Michel: "That's what I'm paying you for"

Dr Alex: "It's a stolen money"

Michel: "NONE OF YOUR BUSINESS, I need what you promised me, a weapon to hurt Miracle with it"

Dr Alex: "Why do you hate him so much?"

Michel: "Add this question to the 'None of your business' section, tell me about the news"

Dr Alex: "I had a blood sample and I found an element in it; this element is responsible for his species to have those special abilities no matter what the abilities are"

Michel: "When will I be able to perform the injection?"

Dr Alex: "Soon"

Someplace else...

Miracle is standing in front the city in chaos, the smoke of the fallen buildings is everywhere, blood and misery are spread across the planet

Miracle looks in front of him sadly and sees the whole army in front of him, coming out of the shadows with blood around their bodies as a tattoo, Miracle can't detect their faces, he don't want to see them he can't stand seeing them

Just as their faces were about to show up, Miracle wakes up from sleep scared, sweating on his bed hardly from fear

Miracle gets up to drink water thinking of the nightmare, his hands are shaking and he holds the cup hardly

Two months left...

The city started to recover, helps came from outside for rebuilding the city, the people got back to their houses and their jobs

The mayor: "Thanks for your support sir, without the helps you've sent to us we wouldn't stand up again after The Long Sorrow"

The president: "I'm happy for this news, I hope things get better soon"

They hang up

The mayor: "I wanted to thank you two myself"

Miracle: "No need mister mayor, this is our pleasure"

The mayor: "The city will always remember what you've done to it"

Miracle and Ob leaves the mayor's office

Ob: "Race?"

Miracle: "Now?"

Ob: "Yes"

Miracle: "Ok"

Ob: "Whoever reaches China first"

Miracle: "Let's go! One, two, THREE!"

Miracle is running and jumping while Ob is flying they both are faster than each other

Ob looks at Miracle and remembers...

Three months ago...

Ob is in Australia, Miracle just left him and flew away

Ob stands up and walks in the streets and looks at the people of earth, he's walking between them and feels like a stranger among them

Days are passing

Ob calls Miracle again

Miracle shows up in front of him

They are setting with people that are gathered around a fire in the night

Someone is playing a guitar and a beautiful woman is next to him singing with a very nice and pure voice

Miracle: "Can you imagine how awful ripping off her neck? Its bad right? Can you imagine making her cries kill off her beautiful voice?"

Ob: "We don't stand a chance against them"

Miracle: "Don't think of it right now, now we have fun"

After the woman finishes singing she stands up and goes to the forest

Miracle grabs Ob by his arm and they go towards her

Miracle: "Hey!"

The woman: "Hello"

Miracle: "We really liked your voice"

The woman: "thank you!"

Miracle: "My friend here thinks you're beautiful too!"

Ob looks at Miracle with tense

The woman smiles and says: "Then why don't he say it himself?"

Miracle: "He's a bit shy but he can say is, come on Ob tell her you're beautiful"

Ob is looking at them both with tense

Miracle whispers in Ob's ear: "COME ON OB"

Ob: "Y You're beautiful"

The woman: "Ohhh, you're so cute, my name is Tracey by the way, Ob huh? Interesting name"

Ob: "Wait till you hear his"

Tracey: "What?"

Miracle: "No, no, it's nothing, I'll leave you two"

In the present...

Miracle reached china first

Miracle starts laughing and gasping

Miracle: "I DID IT OB!"

No sign of Ob

Miracle: "Ob?"

Ob didn't reach china and nowhere to be seen in the sky

Miracle flies in the same direction and starts calling for Ob, but no answer

Miracle starts to worry for his friend and calls Watson

Watson: "Yeah?"

Miracle: "Watson, I can't find Ob, can you detect him on the radars?"

Watson: "Without him flying I can't detect him, but from what I'm seeing here, he's not on my radars, what's going on?"

Miracle: "It's nothing, I'll call you later"

Miracle keeps flying around searching for Ob and keeps calling for him

Miracle enters china and keeps scouting it for Ob until he sees him tied and knocked out in an ally

Miracle rushes towards him but he is suddenly stopped by Michel

Michel: "Hello, Aiden or Miracle"

Miracle: "What the hell did you do?"

Michel: "Listen to me"

Miracle ignores him and goes to untie Ob and waking him up

Michel: "I SAID LISTEN TO ME!"

Michel punches Miracle on his face throwing him kilometers away

Miracle keeps rolling on the ground until he hardly stops him self on the ground after planting his hands in the ground

Miracle gets up with his hand on his face and says: "WHAT THE FUCK?!"

Michel was in front of him in seconds and punches Miracle harder throwing him upwards to the sky almost reaching the space

Miracle is impressed and afraid and has millions of questions

Michel flies towards Miracle and holds him from his shoulders and charges his hand again to punch Miracle on his face but Miracle holds it and kicks him away

Miracle: "What the hell have you done to yourself?"

Michel: "A small injection"

Michel flies towards Miracle but Miracle dodges him

Miracle: "What kind of injection?"

Michel: "SHUT UP I'M NOT HERE TO CHAT!"

Michel flies to Miracle again and tries to punch him several punches but Miracle dodges them all and catches both of his hands so Michel takes the chance and hits him with his head on Miracle's nose, Miracle holds his nose from pain and Michel punches him away

Miracle: "So, be it"

Miracle turns around and catches Michel that was flying towards him from his neck and speeds to the ground and smashes him on the ground

Miracle then jumps and throws Michel away and flies after him then punches him through a building

Michel slaps Miracle and throws him away with the back of his hand

Miracle is out of the building but he stops himself by flying and he's surprised from how strong Michel is

Ob is waking up...

Michel flies his way out of the building towards Miracle and punches him off throwing him a large distance away

Miracle stands on the ground, Michel is flying in front of him

Miracle: "You didn't tell me, what injection?"

Michel: "Injection of you"

Miracle: "In order to do that, you must have a blood sample of mine"

Miracle then remembers when he was in the mouth of the T-rex and his blood falls on the ground

Miracle realizes there's no way now except for defeating that

Miracle plants his hand in the car next to him and throw it on him, the car explodes on Michel and the smoke is everywhere, Michel is stunned by a punch from Miracle in his face

Miracle keeps punching him on his body, waist, ribs, face, in order to weaken him

Miracle flies back and then goes to punch Michel as strong as he could

Michel is thrown backwards on a building

Michel gets up and flies towards Miracle in order to kill him

A punch from the side on Michel's face throws him away

It's Ob

Miracle and Ob are flying in front of Michel whose laying on the ground

Miracle: "Don't kill him, we might need him"

Ob: "We can't, he must die, I've listened to your conversation, I'll tell you later why he must die"

Ob flies towards Michel

Miracle: "WHAT, NO DON'T KILL HIM"

Ob keeps punching Michel on his face

Miracle hits Ob with his leg hardly on his ribs breaking a rib of him and throwing him on the floor

Miracle: "I'm sorry, Ob, but we need him with the upcoming army"

Miracle looks at Michel that has blood on his face

Miracle: "I know you hate me so much but you have a chance to be a hero just as me, I hate you too for what you've done to me, and I did the same to you, I humiliated you as you humiliated me so we're even"

Michel thinks for a second but he changes his face again and attacks Miracle

Ob tries to get up but he can't he's holding his rip in pain on the ground

Michel gets on Miracle and lands crazy punches on his face getting blood out of Miracle's nose, mouth and breaking several teeth breaking the ground beneath them

Miracle hardly: "We're done now?"

Michel gets up and says: "We're even now"

Miracle: "We need you, there's an army from my planet coming to us in a couple of months, you need training to use your powers wisely and be able to control them"

Ob gets to them

Michel looks at Ob and he's about to attack him

Miracle: "NO! he was trying to help me he don't mean to kill you"

Michel: "No, he did"

Ob: "You're damn right I did and still do"

Michel was about to punch Ob but Miracle holds his hand, gives him a comm and takes Ob and flies away

They land far away

Miracle: "What the hell are you doing?!"

Ob: "He must die"

Miracle: "And why is that? He will be a good hand for us and he's incredibly strong maybe even stronger than myself and we need him!"

Ob thinks for seconds and says: "I know something about you that you don't know, but okay, we need him with the upcoming army"

Miracle: "And what's that"

Ob: "It's nothing, let's go and prepare this so-called Michel"

Miracle contacts Michel: "Meet us in the facility, your training starts"

Michel: "For the record, I'm not doing this for you, it's for earth, when we're done, I will kill you Aiden"

Two earth months later...

ON DOMINARA...

Master Gru: "Sir, we sent another dominarian two days ago as you said, no respond came from him"

The dominarian: "Follow the protocol, send the Gray team"

Master Gru: "Right away, sir"

Later...

Master Gru enters a room that contains four crazy dominarians

Master Gru: "You have a quest, E61 is a planet, we've sent two dominarians and they both went missing, you'll go there, investigate their disappearance and take over the planet"

Their leader: "Who did you send?"

Master Gru: "First I sent Miracuro and then I sent Ob"

The team looks at each other surprised of what they hear

The leader: "Miracuro? Do you know how many times I asked Miracuro to be a part of my team and he refused? He's one of the best, Ob was already a member for a long time until he decided to be alone"

Master Gru: "Get ready, you'll move in an hour"

An hour later...

The dominarians are ready to open the worm hole for the team

The team flies towards the worm hole awaiting a hard fight, to see what's the entity that took down both Miracuro and Ob

Two earth months before...

Miracle: "Okay, an army will attack us in here in two months, Ob will tell us the details of them"

In the present...

The four team is approaching earth...

Watson: "Our radars detected four dominarians approaching earth"

Miracle: "Get ready people, as we planned this out"

Two earth months before...

Ob: "The army will be around 4 dominarians, they will be of all types, a pilot, a speedster, a juggernaut and a deflector, they will split themselves across the planet, Miracuro will talk about the plan"

Michel: "Mira what?"

In the present...

The four dominarians are above the planet they notice that it's so quite there's no people in there

Two earth months before...

On every TV channel, on every page on the social media, on every electronic sign in the streets a video is played

The video displays Miracle with a white background

Miracle: "Hello, my name is Miracuro, but you know me as Miracle, I'm from a planet called Dominara, we force new civilizations to be a part of our empire, I have a lot of blood on my hands, a lot of innocent people I killed, I was sent here to conquer your planet, but in here I woke up, I knew that what I was doing was wrong, and this planet gave me the chance to atone for my sins, in two months from now, an attack will happen, an army of four of my people will attack the planet, I can't tell you to go somewhere, or to gather your things and leave, because there is nowhere to leave, I will not say that everything is going to be alright, because it may or may not, I'm afraid just as you are, hug those who you love, maybe it's a chance to make things right with those who we fight with”

In the present...

The team looks at each other and assure themselves then every single one of them takes off, they are separated across the planet

Two earth months before...

Miracle: “In this fight, we will depend on the element of surprise, you've only one shot, you take it or lose it, we'll attack them from the back, we'll plant our hands inside their chest ripping off their hearts”

Michel: “Why is that?”

Miracle: “Sorry?”

Michel: “Why attacking them from the back, this is something I wouldn't do”

Miracle: “Hmm, then go attack them, give them a chance to kill you”

Michel: “They won't”

In the present...

Michel sees the juggernaut from far away he's destroying some buildings, Michel is thinking how to attack him

Two earth months before...

Miracle: "No, no, listen to me, if you did that there will be a chance of you win, or they win, I won't mention how bad the situation will be if you lost, if you win a lot of lives will be gone, buildings fall apart, then why putting up a fight when WE have the element of surprise, they don't even know we're here"

Ob: "I support Miracuro, if they knew we're here they will have time to report to Dominara that there are Traitors in this planet and they will do everything to hunt us"

Miracle: "Michel will handle the juggernaut"

Michel: "What's a juggernaut?"

In the present...

Michel dashes towards the juggernaut and points his hand towards his heart but his hand doesn't enter his body

The juggernaut turns around

Two earth months before...

Miracle: "A very, very, very strong person with big muscle mass"

Michel: "Oh"

In the present...

The juggernaut holds Michel from his neck

Michel starts to shake and holds the rough hand of the juggernaut then he hits him on his eye and pulls himself away from him and lands on the floor and says: "I think I found a weakness"

Two earth months before...

Miracle: "Ob will handle the pilot due to his enhanced flying abilities"

In the present...

Their pilot is flying above the sea but he sees the reflection of something behind him on the sea, someone is about to attack him to he dodged him successfully

The pilot looks at the person and says: "OB?!"

Two earth months before...

Miracle: "I will handle the speedster"

In the present...

The speedster is scouting countries running very fast

Miracle is trying to keep up with the speedster but the speedster's movements are unpredictable

Miracle loses her track and then after seconds he feel air coming from his back, he turns around and see her, looking at him

Miracle: "Element of surprise"

Two earth months before...

Watson: "What about the deflector?"

Miracle: "Your soldiers will procrastinate him as long as they can until we all finish and go to see how to deal with him"

Watson: "I will ask again; do you have any plans?"

Miracle: "My same answer 'No', no one had ever defeated a deflector"

The deflector is in the middle of a desert

Two earth months before...

In a big meeting that contains all of the presidents on earth

The president: "I know there are a lot of disagreements between lots of you, but this danger we're facing is going to doom us all if we didn't stand together against them"

Russia president: "Why not using our nuclear weapons?"

The president: "Ahh"

Miracle: "A nuclear weapon won't be enough to kill a dominarian, it will only weaken him and creating a nuclear radiation will hinder us from dealing with them, we will be your weapons, don't damage us"

In the present...

Suddenly a helicopters, tanks and soldiers are around him, a big army of different countries, countries that has war between each other standing together as one strong hand defending their planet

THE WAR BEGINS

Michel...

The juggernaut jumps towards Michel but before impact Michel dodges him and then punches him in the chest throwing him backwards

Michel runs towards him, kicks him in the face, the juggernaut drops teeth, the juggernaut punches Michel on his face breaking off his nose, teeth and damages an eye of him

Michel is thrown meters away and is suffering of the punch he just had

Michel gets angry and flies upwards then charges towards the juggernaut with straight hands, but the juggernaut holds him from his hand and smashes him on the ground several times then throws him away

Ob...

The pilot: "What're you doing?"

Ob doesn't answer and dashes to the pilot punching him on his face

The pilot flies away from Ob and Ob is flying after him

The pilot on his comm: "Guys, Ob is here I think he's brainwashed"

Ob outflies him and holds the pilot from his neck and punches the pilot on his right part of the face and the comm goes out of the other side from the impact

The pilot gets dizzy and angry but Ob keeps punching him

Ob: "I'm not brainwashed, YOU ARE BRAINWASHED NOT US"

The pilot pushes Ob away and flies as if he's escaping, Ob is following him but suddenly the pilot stops and punches him on his face forcing Ob to fall and lose control of flying and keeps rolling on the sea

The pilot spits blood out of his mouth then charges towards him

Miracle...

The speedster: "Miracuro"

Miracle: "It's Miracle now, honey"

Miracle in a flinch of an eye punches her on her arm and cuts it off

The speedster shouts out of pain as she sees her arm on the ground

Miracle: "Half your control over your body now is gone, give up"

The speedster looks at Miracle in hate and anger, grits on her teeth and dashes towards him

Watson...

Watson: "FIRE!!"

Jets from the sky drops missiles on the deflector creating a big smoke around him

Out of the smoke the deflector jumps on a tank destroying it then he holds its long arm, lifts it and throws it on a jet

The soldiers rises their weapons towards the deflector

Watson: "NOOO!"

The soldiers shoot on the deflector but instead the bullets are deflected to the soldiers killing anyone who shot him

Tanks starts firing on the deflector

Miracle: "HOW ARE YOU?"

Watson on the comm: "The situation is under control we managed to weaken him but not for long, please hurry up we need someone here now!"

Michel...

Michel: "I WILL TRY TO KILL THIS SON OF A BITCH AND COME TO YOU!"

The juggernaut punches him on the chest throwing him backwards but Michel gathers himself, rotates and uses his head to punch him on his nose

Michel punches him on his leg making him kneel and quickly plants his fingers inside his eyes

The juggernaut screams in pain and punches Michel away

Michel looks at him in fear and says: "How is he alive!"

The juggernaut: "I CAN'T SEE!!"

The juggernaut starts moving randomly destroying buildings and jumps from a place to another holding his eye from pain

Michel: "OHHH FUCK WHAT DID I DO!"

Ob...

Ob and the pilot are flying around each other trying to plant a punch on the other's face

Ob is thinking, how to kill him? OH, I GOT AN IDEA

Ob stands still in the air and takes a deep breath filling his lungs with enough oxygen, the pilot uses it as a chance and tries to punch Ob

Ob watches his mouth while its squeezed and the air gets out of it

Ob returns a meter back, holds him from his face and flies downwards as fast as he can towards the water to drown him

Miracle...

The speedster is running after Miracle

Miracle: "HOLD ON, WATSON"

Miracle looks back and he don't see any one but suddenly a punch is landed on his face

Miracle loses control and falls in the way he was running at

Miracle gets up and looks around himself

There's no one around

A punch on his face, Miracle turns around, another part on his face

The speedster is running around him, uses the cars and the buildings to prevent being seen by Miracle and takes chances to punch him on his face

A punch after punch, Miracle gets dizzy

A punch every millisecond, they're very fast, Miracle can't detect her position

Punches after punches on his body and face, huge stones and cars being kicked at him

Miracle can't stabilize himself to fly or run away or even see

Miracle is punching the air with last hope to hit her and gives himself a chance to focus

Miracle jumps as high as he can and scratches his eyes then looks downwards and spots her then fly as fast as he could towards her on the ground

Miracle lands in front of her

They keeps trying to punch each other quickly, their hands aren't recognizable

They use so much strength to stand still, their legs are planted in the ground

Miracle holds her only hand and shapes his other hand as a sword and cuts a leg off, then pushes her quickly, she's pushed away leaving the other leg on the ground

The speedster is on the ground, one hand, no legs, the most important part of her body is now out of service

Miracle: "You fought very well, for someone with one hand, you really had a good chance against me"

Miracle leaves the speedster to bleed until death

She's not a threat anymore

She had lost what specializes her on the hands of Miracle

Miracle: "The speedster is down, I'm coming for you, Watson"

Watson: "You better hurry the fuck up"

Watson...

The tanks: "RELOADING!"

The deflector uses the chance and pushes back a tank using his body, and runs towards the other splitting it into half

Then jumps and gets between the cars and starts destroying them one by one with random punches

Behind him...

Miracle: "HEY, I'M HERE, COME GET ME MOTHERFUCKER"

The deflector jumps towards Miracle and Miracle jumps too

Michel...

The juggernaut is flying across buildings

Michel is trying to follow him but the juggernaut is moving very fast

Michel managed to catch him and gets on his shoulder

Michel holds the juggernaut from his chin and grabs as strong as he can to cut his head out

The juggernaut tries to grab Michel, but Michel used his leg to keep the juggernaut's hand away

Michel focuses more and more

Michel's veins are glowing and muscles are getting split as he's grabbing, the juggernaut is screaming from pain

Finally, Michel managed to get half his head off

The juggernaut fell on the floor

A huge unbeatable monster fell on the ground due to two small holes on his face

A family is looking at him

Michel: "Sorry for the mess"

Michel: "What bring me here?"

A flashback from Michel...

Michel is in Dr Alex's lab and he's tied up carefully on a bed

Dr Alex: "Are you sure you want to do this? There's no coming back"

Michel: "Do it!"

Dr Alex injects Michel with the elixir that will create a MIRACLE out of him

Michel screams as his genes are starting to change and adapt to the new guest

Michel with Miracle...

Michel: "And that's how I got the powers"

Miracle: "So, you have the same powers of mine? But how're you stronger?"

Michel: "I told Dr Alex to double up the dose, so I'm a dominarian more than yourself"

Miracle: "Can I speak with Dr Alex?"

Michel: "Why is that?"

Miracle: "This guy must've been studied the whole dominarian blood, he can benefit us for the war or even create something to take down a deflector or even a poison"

Michel: "That's not possible"

Michel and Dr Alex after taking the dose...

Michel is very high and crazy, he cuts the belts holding him and stands up

Dr Alex while he's returning back: "Ahh, Mr Michel?"

Michel approaches him and whispers: "There can't be more than one miracle..."

Michel plants his hand in Dr Alex's neck killing him instantly

In the present...

Michel in the comm: "The juggernaut is down, I'm heading to you"

Ob...

Underwater Ob is going deep as much as he can, bubbles are coming out from the pilot's mouth

The pilot is fighting as much as he can to get out of Ob's hand but Ob is holding him from the back of his neck, with his knee on his back and holds a hand of him completely disabling him from moving

The pilot opens his mouth and then the last bubbles are coming out

The pilot is dead...

The pilot died because he didn't think using his mind he thought using his enhanced flying abilities

Ob flies back to the outside to catch his breath

Ob: "The pilot is down, I'm heading towards you"

In the battlefield...

Ob reaches them and looks seeing Miracle fighting with the deflector

Two earth months before...

Ob: "the worst kind of them is the deflector they apply the third law of watt"

Miracle: "Newton"

Ob: "Yeah sorry, the third law of Newton, for every action, there is an equal and opposite reaction, when you slap them you feel the pain on your hand and they don't feel anything because the law doesn't apply to them"

In the present...

Miracle punches the deflector on his face, the deflector doesn't move an inch but Miracle holds his hand in pain: "AHH, MOTHERFUCKER"

The deflector is about to punch Miracle but Ob holds his hand and throws him away

Ob whispers to Miracle: "Where is Michel?"

Miracle: "He's on his way"

The deflector: "Miracuro, I've always admired you, what are you doing in here"

The deflector kicks the corps of a solder and continues: "protecting these useless species"

Miracle: "This is more than you think"

Ob: "Miracuro, I want you to focus"

Miracle: "Focus on what?"

Ob didn't get the chance to answer as a strong punch from the deflector is landed on his face

Two earth months before...

Ob continues: "And yeah, watch out for their punches because the damage is doubled up"

In the present...

Miracle holds his face in pain

Ob knowing that he mustn't punch the deflector he holds him from his leg and smashes him to the ground

The deflector gets up and looks at Ob and punches him on his chest throwing him away

The deflector focuses on Miracle and walks towards him

Michel reached the battlefield

Michel takes a chance and charges as fast as he could towards the deflector and punches him on the back of his head

Ob is shocked from what he sees

Michel's punch separated the deflector's head out of his body

The head of the deflector is thrown on Miracle's hand

Miracle looks at the head and shouts from seeing the dead face of the deflector and screams as a woman and throws it away

Ob: "WHAT THE FUCK HAS HAPPENED"

Ob looks at Michel and says: "HOW THE HELL DID YOU DO THAT!"

Michel: "I don't know I just flew towards him and punches him that's all"

Ob: "I know see the full picture"

Miracle in happiness shouts to Ob: "ELEMENT OF SURPRISE MOTHERFUCKER"

Miracle continues: "They must be aware that they will be attacked in order to deflect it"

Miracle, Watson, Michel and Ob are very happy now

Miracle: "I'm pleased that this ended fine"

Ob: "Yeah, me too"

Days later...

In a very big festival celebrating their win

The president is standing in front of a big crowd of people

The president: "I'm glad we had heroes like Miracle, Ob, Michel and general Watson, they saved us knowing that there are aliens who stood against their species, I hope we live in order to prove to them that we deserve their sacrifices"

The people starts clapping and shouting

The president honors them

Later...

In Watson's house...

Miracle to Ob: "Ever since the war ended, I stopped having those nightmares, I'm very happy"

Ob: "Me too, my friend"

Ob gets up and goes to the bathroom

Miracle goes to Michel and says: "I've got a present for you"

Michel looks at Miracle

Miracle hands him a box with a smile on his face

Miracle: "No hard feelings?"

Michel: "No hard feelings, Aiden"

Michel smiles and decides to let go of any bad feeling towards Miracle

Suddenly a hand got out of Michel's chest holding Michel's heart

Miracle is shocked and looks behind Michel just to see Ob

Ob's hand entered Michel's back and got out of the next side covered in red

Ob smashes Michel's heart and then takes his hand off leaving Michel to fall on the ground

Miracle is speechless and can't move a muscle

Ob with red eyes: "There can't be two miracles"

CHAPTER TWO ENDS

CHAPTER THREE: THE PROPHECY

In the desert...

The warehouse that is owned by the former manager of groove labs...

The team in there is studying the dragons

After the months the dragons grew up to a human size, their shapes are larger and rough scales are drawn on their bodies

The manager: "My kids..."

In Watson's house...

The team is celebrating their win

Watson: "I had a question"

Ob: "What is it?"

Watson: "No offense but how come you were conquerors and takes down planets on your own and yet it is was kinda hard to defeat the threats, I mean there must be armies in the other planets as well"

Miracle: "Saving the planet is a lot harder than destroying it, as you're fighting the enemy you're afraid of a dumb move to be done that will cause innocent lives to die, and also never forget the dark scenarios if you lost, it causes a psychological pressure on us that affects us, but destroying a planet..."

Miracle remembers the planets, the blood, destruction everywhere caused by himself, the bloods with different colors on his hands

Miracle continues: "But destroying a planet is randomly destroy and kill until the planet gives up, no focusing, no parameters to achieve"

Miracle looks at Ob: "Why did you refuse capturing the gray team and flipping them to be with us"

Ob: "There is a big difference between us and them, we destroyed planets and killed people because this was our job, they... they enjoyed this, do you know when someone turns their hobby into their job? It's the same, they enjoyed murdering people, I was with them for a while, they don't leave the planet even if it gave up, they leave it when they are bored, when they are full from drinking their blood, that's when they finally show mercy to the planet"

Miracle: "Before the gray team came in here, I was very afraid, I had infinite nightmares about this day but now... I'm not afraid anymore"

Now...

Ob: "There can't be two miracles"

Miracle is looking at the corps of Michel on the ground with an opened chest and blood is dripping out of his body profusely

Miracle retrieves back his focus

Miracle: "WHAT THE FUCK DID YOU DO! WHY DID YOU DO THAT?!?!"

Ob: "I've always hinted to you but you didn't listen, he has your fucking blood, the only chance of getting out of this trouble was going to vanish if he lived"

Miracle: "I don't understand you, what hint?"

Ob: "Do you remember when you grabbed me across the sea?"

Miracle remembers when he defeated Ob...

Miracle: "You finished?"

Miracle grabs Ob from his shoulders and they both disappear in the sea

Ob: "Haven't you ever questioned yourself how didn't Watson and his team detect you on their radars, knowing that they detected me coming and they always detected my location, you simply didn't want us to be found, same as Michel when he caught me off guard when we were racing, the radars couldn't detect him because he simply didn't want to be found"

Miracle: "I don't understand you"

Ob looks at Watson: "Drop your phone Watson, your forces can't defy me"

Ob looks at Miracle: "Do you want me to punch you?"

Miracle: "No I don't"

Ob gets close to Miracle and continues: "Do you want to feel the pain of my punch?"

Miracle: "Get back, Ob"

Ob: "Don't want to deflect me back?"

Tension is everywhere in the room

Miracle: "Get to the point"

Ob punches Miracle on his chest but all of a sudden, Miracle didn't move an inch

Ob's hand is the one that took all of the damage...

Miracle: "What the fuck?"

Watson is surprised

Watson: "You're a deflector"

Miracle is surprised

Ob: "You simply deflected the radar's radio transmissions without even thinking of it you just didn't want to be found"

Miracle: "But what's the reason of murdering Michel?"

Ob laughs and says: "Yeah you didn't study, are you?"

Ob continues: "There has always been a prophecy:

On the crimson world of Dominara where each soul is gifted but divided strength, swiftness, flight, and defiance shall dwell apart—until the day a child is born who carries all four within, destined to rise as the one true king"

Watson: "Does this means what I think it means?"

Ob: "Miracuro is the child who's destined to rule Dominara as its king"

Miracle is surprised from these words and the prophecy

Miracle: "What are you saying"

Ob: "The presence of Michel would've invalidated this prophecy, it's our only way of keeping ourselves alive and save all other planets not just E61, Michel's sacrifice had to be done and the world will always remember him as a defender in the Gray war"

Miracle in anger and deep voice: "I'm not a fucking king and Michel didn't have to die; do you want to convince me that if I walked in the door of Dominara and said 'Hey I'm your ruler' that they will welcome and crown me? I'm a traitor you dumb bastard just as yourself"

Ob: "They have no idea where we are right now or who we became we can use this as an advantage to us"

Miracle's eyes are tearing up

Miracle: "NO"

Ob: "You simply have nothing to say, you're upset because of Michel's death, me too, but it has to be done my friend"

Ob smiles and continues: "You're not called 'Miracle' out of nothing, it has a deeper meaning and you deserve that name"

Miracle flies out of the apartment through the balcony

Watson makes a call and says: "Track him!"

Ob smiles: "Ohh, no need, you won't find him"

He doesn't want to be found

Miracle is flying as fast as he can, tears are going out of his eyes to the air

He lands in a jungle and looks at the sky in anger

Miracle realizes he doesn't have a choice, this is his destiny and he must do his duty

After days...

Ob is in his house alone in the dark, waiting for his friend to wake up and see the truth

Ob: "Hello your majesty I've wondered when you'll be back"

Miracle: "Fuck you"

Miracle sits on a sofa and says: "So, what's the plan?"

Ob: "We have to figure out a way to reach Dominara, as soon as we reach it, everything is going to be easy"

Miracle: "Dominara is billions of light years away from us we can't reach it"

Ob: "Exactly, we need a worm hole generator"

Miracle: "But the technology in here isn't so advanced to create a machine like that"

Ob: "Yes, they can't not even YOU can, but I can, with some help and hard work, we may succeed in creating it"

Miracle: "But you must know something, we must go first, they will send another team in three dominarian days from now, which means nine earth months approximately, so we must reach them first"

Ob: "No, they won't"

Miracle: "Why's that?"

Ob: "Dominara's military soldiers less than before, they won't send other troops again, they've already sent two dominarians and one of the best teams and they all went missing, they won't sacrifice another people in the upcoming dominarians years"

Miracle: "Ok, we have a lot of time"

Ob: "Let's contact Watson, you find something useful to do in the meantime"

After a few days...

In a building...

Watson: "You'll meet someone you do know"

Jack gets out of a door

Jack: "It's nice to see you again my friend"

Ob and Jack shake hands

Ob: "It's nice to see you too"

Jack: "Now, shall we get to work?"

Ob: "Let's go"

Months later...

In a bank...

A robber: "I WILL NOT ASK AGAIN, GET THE FUCK DOWN ALL OF YOU!"

The robber has a machine gun and points it in front of them all threatening them

The civilians are screaming out of fear and they get down on the floor

A robber in a comm: "What's the status?"

Another two robbers in front of the largest armored door are opening it

One of them: "The safe is almost opened"

The other robber: "Okay, quickly because the cops are on their way"

The robber: "We're doing the best we can"

The bank was drowning in fear Screams echoed, the metallic clack of the machine gun cut through the chaos Suddenly, the front doors of the bank blasted open as a blur of light streaked inside

Miracle had arrived, fists clenched, eyes locked on the robbers

The robber holding the machine gun froze for a second then shouted: "IT'S MIRACLE! LIGHT HIM UP!"

He pulled the trigger, a storm of bullets rushed toward Miracle

But Miracle didn't move His chest rose, calm, almost defiant

Each bullet halted midair inches from his body, then with a flicker of energy snapped they reversed, spiraling back toward the shooter The robber screamed as his own weapon betrayed him, knocking him flat against the wall

The civilians gasped, hope surging in their eyes

From the vault side, one of the robbers shouted, "Keep him busy!" and lobbed a grenade toward Miracle

Miracle darted upward with super speed, the grenade sailing harmlessly beneath him before exploding, shaking the floor

Then—WHOOSH! —he dove down, fist-first, punching the ground with such strength that shockwaves hurled two robbers off their feet, their weapons scattering across the floor

One desperate robber raised his rifle and fired again The bullets pinged back instantly, shredding the weapon from his hands Miracle appeared in front of him in a blur and with a single shove sent him skidding into a desk, knocked out cold

The last robber at the vault panicked, trying to shut the armored door as a shield Miracle's voice boomed:

"You wanted a safe? Let me lock it for you"

He zipped forward, slamming the heavy door closed with a thunderous BANG, trapping the robber's arm outside The man screamed before Miracle yanked him free and tossed him across the room like a ragdoll

With all the robbers down, Miracle floated above the terrified yet relieved civilians His voice softened:

"You're safe now"

The police sirens wailed outside Miracle gave one last nod to the people and shot into the sky, leaving nothing behind but the echo of his name whispered by the saved: "Miracle..."

Later...

Miracle is in the skies heading towards a place

Miracle enters groove labs but he's not heading to Ob he's heading to another room

As Miracle enters he asks the person in there: "Hello Johnny, what's the news?"

It's Johnny the former helper of Dr Alex

Johnny: "I'm done, but I need to test that"

Miracle: "You do know that we can't test that because it's only me and Ob in here"

Johnny: "How are we supposed to know if it works or not?"

Miracle: "Just trust yourself, show it to me"

Johnny give Miracle a serum

Miracle: "So, this serum is the one that will make us lose our powers?"

Johnny: "Yes, I reviewed Dr Alex's researches about your blood and this serum kills the special cells that makes you, you"

Miracle: "Hmm"

Johnny: "I have an idea!"

Johnny gets up and goes to a shelf and grabs a tube

Johnny: "This tube contains a drop of your blood we will put the serum on it and see if the special cells dies or not"

Miracle: "Sounds like a good idea"

Johnny takes the serum from Miracle and prepares the microscope

Johnny puts a drop of Miracle's blood and then a small amount of the serum on it then he looks

Johnny sees the serum's particles successfully attacks the special cells and leaves the rest of the blood until the blood is finally clean out of any dominarian special particles

Johnny looks at Miracle and says with glowing eyes: "It worked!"

Miracle smiles and is about to leave

Johnny: "You sure you don't want a copy of it that also kills the victim?"

Miracle: "Thank you Johnny, but this is enough, I'm sure Dr Alex would be very proud of your achievement"

Miracle gets out of the room and goes to Ob's

As Miracle enters he sees a very huge machine being built and Ob's inside

Miracle: "Here's the bald son of a bitch"

Ob: "I can't respond back to that, my king"

Miracle and Ob hugs each other

Miracle: "The poison is ready"

Ob: "Really? Show it to me"

Miracle hands the poison to Ob and Ob starts to look at it

Ob: "We're almost ready"

Miracle: "How long till you finish?"

Ob: "Days, it's just the finishing and we will test then"

Miracle: "Okay"

Ob: "And don't forget!"

Miracle: "Yeah, yeah I didn't forget today's date"

Ob: "My wife has cooked a delicious sea food, you'll like it"

Miracle: "I will be right on time!"

In the desert's warehouse...

The dragons are very huge by now...

They're in the size of buildings

Their presence plants fear inside every person's heart

A scientist: "Mr Mason, I don't think we would be able to occupy them"

The manager (Mason) sarcastically: "What do you suggest? Murdering them? Are you sure?"

The scientist: "That's not what I mean, I'm just afraid that The Long Sorrow might happen again, my family died in this event"

Mason: "No, that's why these cages are in here, these cages cannot dissolve by their fire, and it didn't happen once that one of them tried to escape"

The scientist: "That's exactly the same scenario with the dinosaurs"

Mason: "Don't be a coward James, in here we're creating masterpieces, a true miracle!"

Mason looks at the eyes of a dragon and continues: "YOU will be a part of this miracle don't you ever forget that!"

In Ob's house...

Miracle, Ob and Tracey are gathered around a table eating the food with the sounds of their laughter spread across the house, a true family, a family that neither Ob nor Miracle ever had

Tracey: "What about you Miracle, why didn't you marry Emma by now?"

Miracle takes a deep breath and answers: "We are going into war an unknown destiny, I don't know if it will end up with me alive or dead or alive but can't reach out and I don't want her to suffer because this"

Tracey: "The real suffering is having her seeing you everywhere in the social media, TV and even the skies, having her knowing that she's in your mind but you don't reach out to her, that's the real suffering"

Ob: "Don't deprive her of you man, if something bad happened to you, she'll live with that as she knows you both were together and she'll get the chance to remember the good days not when the days when she saw you in the sky or sacrificing your live for saving her"

Miracle thinks it out...

After a few days in a desert...

Ob: "LIGHT IT UP!!!"

In the groove labs...

Jack: "SETTING THE COORDINATES!"

Jack writes a coordinates through the keyboard of the machine and green lights started showing up

In the desert...

Miracle: "I don't understand yet, what are we doing now?"

In the groove labs...

Jack: "SETTING THE ADDRESS!"

Jack sets the address through a space generator that shows the planet Mars

In the desert...

Ob: "You see this ball?"

Miracle: "Yes?"

Ob: "There's an embedded camera inside it, Jack will open the worm hole in the sky here, we will throw the ball as strong as we can and track the ball using the camera"

In the groove labs...

Jack: "READYYY?!"

Ob: "GO ON JACK!"

Jack presses the start button...

The huge machine started glowing with colors and Jack's eyes are following the data assuring that everything is correct

Jack: "Status?"

In the desert...

Ob: "I can see in the sky that it feels like it's being cut open like it's a spaghetti in a shape of a circle"

After seconds the shape of the portal is opened

Ob give the ball to Miracle and says: "You have the honors"

Miracle: "I can't, you built it!"

Ob: "Let's have your blessing, my king!"

Miracle looks at the ball and the opened worm hole and hearing its high sound that covers the whole desert

Ob: "Throw it as strong as you can!"

Miracle charges his hand and throws it as strong as he could towards the portal

Ob noticed a group of birds were near the portal and they're trying to fly the other way but its like the portal is swallowing them

Ob: "PACKAGE IS DELIVERED, CLOSE THE HOLE, JACK!"

Jack presses on the stop button shutting the portal down instantly

Ob: "What do you see jack?"

Jack and everyone is looking at the big screen that displays the ball's camera carefully waiting until he gets a signal

Suddenly the screen shows up stars and the earth and moon are seen far away

The ball rotates and Jack could see Mars!

Jack laughs with very high voice and shouts: "IT WORKED!"

All of the scientists in the room are starting to shout and hug each other from happiness

Ob: "WAIT FOR ME I'M COMING!!"

Ob flies without saying a word as fast as he can towards the groove labs

Miracle is standing alone in the desert and says: "Hmm, I think it worked"

After days of preparation...

Watson: "What's the plan"

Miracle: "Actually, there's no plan"

Watson: "Sorry?"

Ob: "We will tell them about what we need to say and we'll see their response and we will act based on that"

Watson: "I don't like that"

Miracle: "Me neither but there's nothing to plan for"

Ob: "Don't forget having several copies of the poison, we might need it we don't know"

Miracle: "Don't worry I have them"

Watson: "Why don't we settle here, do you know what would happen if you fail, they will come here and destroy this place, why risking that"

Miracle: "There are multiple planets are being destroyed and people are dying as we speak now, we need to stop them"

Watson: "We can't do anything to them!"

Miracle shouts in anger: "YOU WERE BLESSED WITH ME, IMAGINE IF IT WAS ANOTHER DOMINARIAN SENT IN HERE, YOU WOULD'VE BEEN DOOMED A YEAR AND HALF AGO, do YOU know how many planets were enslaved in that time? No huh? Put yourself in their shoes, a last hope of survival"

Ob: "We need to go"

Miracle: "I still have something to do"

Miracle flies away and meets his friends

They hug each other and they wish him good lucks

In the side, Emma was sitting in there with a cold face

Miracle called for her

They are standing alone

Miracle: "I'll miss you"

Emma sadly and sarcastically: "Yeah, yeah, I know"

Miracle: "I'm so sorry for being far away, I just couldn't be with you and the other minute I die, I can't stand hurting you that way"

Emma: "Anything would've been better than throwing me away as if you don't think of me anymore"

Miracle: "I'm sorry, I can't travel back knowing that you're still mad at me"

Emma smiles and says: "It's ok, you can go, I forgive you, just come back to me safely"

Miracle hugs her and says: "I will"

Miracle then flies away and Emma is looking at him with her eyes glowing and tears are coming out of it with here hand on here heart fearing of what will happen to him

In the warehouse of dragons...

The place is empty there's only one scientist doing some paper works on a desk with his back facing the dragons' cages

A "Tick" sound happens as if something fell on the floor

The scientist turns around and looks at the cages

He sees a coin on the floor in front of a dragon's cage

He gets down and grab it when suddenly the dragon that had a small palm attached to his wing got his palm out and held the scientist covering him up with his palm

The scientist shouts in fear and the dragon's eye is filled with anger and with no hesitation the dragon threw him to his mouth and after swallowing him it burped with a small amount of flame coming out of its mouth

The dragon shouts high and uses its tail to break out of his cage and then fires from its mouth at the others cages to free them

All of the dragons are shouting high and the emergency alarm started out

As a result of annoyance, they lighted up the whole huge warehouse on fire and got out of it seeing that they're in a desert

They charge their wings and jumps high and starts flying in the sky for the first time

In the desert...

Miracle and Ob are standing

Jack through the comm: "Coordinates are set to Dominara, get ready my friends"

Ob takes a deep breath and says: "We're ready, light it up"

Jack presses on the 'Start' button turning on the worm hole

At the same time the dragons are flying at the same direction of the worm hole

Miracle sees them from far away

A dominarian: “And where are they now?”

Master Gru: “Missing, that’s why I’m requesting another team”

The dominarian: “So, you sent a couple of our best dominarians and the GRAY TEAM and all of them went missing and now you’re requesting another? NO, just add E61 to the prohibited areas”

ON EARTH...

Miracle sees those dragons in the air next to the worm hole that’s being opened and shouts: “NOOO!”

Miracle flies as fast as he can towards them

Miracle to Ob: “SHUT THE WORM HOLE DOWN IMMEDIATELY”

It’s too late...

ON DOMINARA...

Master Gru: “But,”

The dominarian: “I’m sorry my friend but your request is rejected”

ON EARTH...

Miracle punched a dragon on its face in attempt to push them back

The worm hole opens and swallows the dragons, Ob and Miracle

ON DOMINARA...

Suddenly a strong sound of destruction near them happens they both stand up and flies out of the place to be surprised by what they're seeing

They see Miracuro, Ob with huge monsters that are capable of shooting fire through their mouths are fighting together

A dragon shoots fire at Ob hardly and Ob shouts in pain

Miracle runs and grabs him quickly out of the fire context

Miracle and Ob are standing in front of four angry huge dragons in a strange planet

Miracle: "Let's hope they don't think we're attacking them"

Ob: "This is your chance to prove you're the real king"

Master Gru: "Miracuro?"

The dominarian: "Call out the forces"

A huge number of dominarians are approaching

Juggernauts, pilots, speedsters and even deflectors are entering the field

Miracle flies towards the biggest dragon of them, the one who broke himself free

But the dragon swing with his wing throwing Miracle away smashing him into a building

Miracle gets up and runs to the battle again

Ob flies and grabs one of the dragons away and they both are flying in the dominarian sky together

The dragon is shooting fires at Ob but Ob is dodging them and approaches the dragon quickly and punches it on its face then tries to grab out a tooth from its mouth but the dragon bites his hand and throws him away

The dominarians are starting to charge attacks on the dragons

But the dragons are blocking them

A dragon holds a dominarian and eats its head and another dragon mashes a dominarian under his leg

Miracle is running around the biggest dragon trying to distract it but the dragon puts his leg in front of Miracle and then shoots fire at him as strong as it can

Miracle is shouting and is about to give up

Until Ob is showed from nowhere and kicks the dragon on its neck disturbing it

The dragon gets angry and it flies away

All the other dragons are following it

The dragons are entering residential areas and starts pumping fires at the people's buildings killing them all and destroying their homes

The dominarians are trying to punch them but nothing works, their skin is very rough and a punch can't stop them

Master Gru lands on the ground in front of Miracle

Master Gru: "Miracuro, where have you been! And what are these monsters you bring with you"

Miracle: "Master Gru, it's a long story, me and Ob will explain later, right now we need to kill those dragons"

Master Gru: "Dragons?"

Miracle: "Yeah, that's their name, we need something very sharp that can put holes in them"

Master Gru: "I will bring you a spear"

Ob: "What the hell is this"

Miracle: "I don't know"

Ob: "What are the dragons?"

Miracle: "They are beings like the dinosaurs that we fought, they are legendary and there was no scientific prove that they existed I don't know how they're here"

The dragons...

The dragons landed in the destruction they've created as if they were creating a home for themselves or a base to settle in

The dominarian president: "Release our pets"

In a dominarian cages...

Numbers of cages are being opened and huge monsters comes out of it, they're animal shaped but stronger, the chains that were tying them up are removed and fell on the floor making a strong sound due to their thickness

The monsters felt freedom finally and shouted out high then jumped to the sky

But each monster is getting held by a juggernaut and thrown to the dragons' base

The dragons saw huge beings landing in their bases in front of them

The dragons started pumping fires towards them

One of the dragons don't pump fires but it pumps a flammable gas

This dragon flew around the base spreading this green gas out of its mouths filling the whole base with it

The monsters can't see anything and they start to hit and move randomly

The dragons flew to the sky and the biggest one shot the killing flame towards the green spot

A red huge explosion happened in the base killing anything inside

Huge dark smokes is filling the whole place

Suddenly a blue monster somehow managed to survive and jumps off the yellow fire spot holding the dinosaur that shot the gas from its neck and falls back to the base with it

The dragons were about to follow them but they're attacked by a dominarian army

Miracle is holding a spear and Ob is next to him flying towards the dragons

Miracle: "I think I know who's involved"

Ob: "Who?"

Miracle: "The manager of groove labs, he escaped from his trial and the government was searching for him everywhere"

Ob: "Whatever, they can't live here"

Miracle and Ob reached the base, they see in the sky a team of dominarians are fighting with the dragons but the dragons are winning the fight

Miracle approached the biggest of them all stabbed it on its wing and cut it open making the dragon unable to fly

The dragon falls on the base again

And due to his huge size and wings, when he fell down it put down the fire and the smokes revealing the body of the dead gas dragon and the blue monster is eating its corps

One of the dragons in the sky saw this and shouted high and Miracle took that chance and held the spear towards the dragon's mouth and entered its mouth cutting off everything inside to the flesh

The dragon isn't able to maintain flight after dying from the inside and falls on the ground

Ob charges as fast as he can breaking the sound barrier towards the fourth dragon and punches it on its face creating a hole in it

The dragon is trying to shoot fires towards Ob and it did manage to hurt him but not enough as Ob is punching it continuously

Ob held its tooth and he grabs it as strong as he can until it's finally out of the dragon's mouth

The mouth of the dragon is spreading blood around and the dragon screams in pain

Ob got down the dragon and pointed the tooth up as a weapon and charged upwards stabbing the dragon in its heart by its own tooth

The dragon fell on the ground next to the biggest dragon

A dominarian president: "Tie it, I want it alive"

The dominarians took advantage that the dragon is helpless on the ground and they are trying to tie it up using strong metal chains

Miracle is cutting a hole out of the dragon to get out of it

Miracle and Ob are seeing the dominarians tying the dragon and the dragon is screaming and hopelessly uses his weak breaths to shoot hopeless flames in order to damage them but he couldn't

Ob looks at Miracle the look of "This is your chance"

Miracle shouts: "NOOO! STAY AWAY OF IT"

Miracle charges and punches the dominarians around the dragon

A dominarians: "The president's orders is keeping it alive"

Miracle: "Fuck the president, I'm your fucking king"

The president: "Take him down"

The dominarian punches Miracle on his face but Miracle deflected the attack and the dominarian's hand hurts him, Miracle holds his hand and breaks it

Miracle: "YOU DARE TO DEFY ME!?"

Ob is watching from far away in happiness

The other dominarians are attacking Miracle

Five dominarians are standing in front of Miracle

They all attack at the same time

They landed kicks and punches at Miracle but Miracle deflected them all and they stand in hurt, Miracle took the chance and shaped his hand as a sword and opened their bellies with his hand in a flinch of an eye, leaving them all falling on the floor

The dragon took that as a chance and tries to escape but Miracle caught it from its wing and jumped into its mouth

Miracle charged the strongest punch he could ever make and punched the dragon in the upper side of its mouth

The punch was very strong that a blood and parts of the dragon's brain pumped out of the dragon's head

The dragon fell on the floor

Ob and Miracle are standing on the ground

Huge number of dominarians are around them preparing for a fight

Master Gru lands in front of them and says: "What are you doing? The orders where clear to keep that dragon alive, you killed it and killed other dominarians for listening to orders"

Miracle with serious voice: "No, you have to listen to me, I am the dominarian who gives the order, not you or anyone else, I hope that's clear"

Master Gru: "Who gave you that right?"

Miracle: "Being the child with all of the powers combined"

Master Gru's eyes are opened in surprise and says: "Prove it"

Miracle flies in the air the same way he flew in the air and stands still like he is floating with both of his hands are straighten next to his body like he did in the office but this time his hands wasn't shaking and he was still and had more control over his flying ability

Miracle landed on the floor and then ran as fast as he could around the dragons base creating a smoke out of the damaged buildings and the burned corps of the dead dominarians

Then Miracle lifted the corps of the dragon and threw it as strong as he could towards the sky in the outer space kicking it outside of the planet leaving the body of the dragon rote in the cold space

Then at last he stood against Master Gru and said: "Hit me"

Master Gru smiled and charged a strong punch and he flexed his muscles then suddenly instead of punching Miracle he punched Ob throwing him away

Ob fell in a very far distance on the ground knocked out unconscious

Miracle is surprised and he's about to attack Master Gru when four juggernauts attacked him and they pinned him down on the ground

Miracle is shouting: "LET ME GO! I'M YOUR KING"

Master Gru: "You're nobody's king, I'll make sure of that"

Master Gru to the dominarians: "Take him to the prison, I don't want to see him here, I will deal with him later, take Ob too but separate them"

In the prison...

Miracle and Ob are in two cells next to each other

Ob wakes up on Miracle's voice shouting: "LET ME OUT OF HERE!"

Both Miracle and Ob are tied with chains and can't move

Ob: "Miracuro"

Miracle: "Ob you're awake? Come on we must get out of here"

Ob: "We can't"

Miracle: "Why's that"

Ob: "These cells and chains are made up with metals that no dominarian can break out of them"

Miracle: "Well, how can we get out of here?"

Ob: "We wait for the right moment then we attack as strong as we can"

Master Gru...

A dominarian president: "What did he say in there?"

Master Gru: "It's nothing sir, his days at E61 made him crazy"

The dominarian president: "Try to know what happened back on E61 and the location of the gray team"

In the prison...

Master Gru opens Miracle's cell by clicking the button and enters

Master Gru: "Miracuro"

Miracle: "Gru"

Master Gru: "Gru?"

Master Gru punches Miracle on his face and says: "MY NAME IS MASTER GRU YOU TRAITOR"

Miracle spits the blood and takes his breath hardly: "No king shall call their followers by their title"

Master Gru laughs and says: "You know something? I believe you, I truly do, but you know how things work, I can't let you rule over the dominarian empire"

Miracle: "Yes I know, that's why I will kill you and rule it"

Master Gru: "You don't have much time, you'll be executed tomorrow for murdering your people"

Miracle: "I don't die so easily"

Master Gru turned around and was about to leave the cell

Miracle: "Why did you need earth anyway?"

Master Gru turns around again and looks at Miracle with a smile

Master Gru: "So, that is what this is about, you've got attached to a species rather than yours"

Miracle: "Somethings the people like you wouldn't understand"

Master Gru: "We've tracked any planet that would contain a specific chemical element that is assumed to be metal, it is shiny and bright yellow"

Miracle: "You mean gold?"

Master Gru: "I don't know what they name it, we've found this element you call 'Gold' on earth"

Miracle: "Why do you need gold?"

Master Gru: "We need it as a cure for cancer, you know what specializes us? An element called 'Aetherion' you have this element in your blood, I have it too, every dominarian have it, but there's a small problem, the presence of this element raises the possibility of having cancers, blood cancers"

Miracle: "How did you figure out that the gold is the key"

Master Gru: "There has been a small amount of it in a planet we conquered, but the amount was very small it only lasted for the tests, Miracuro, you were sent to save millions of you dominarian brothers and you chose to betray us"

Miracle shouts and the chains shakes: "SAVING MILLIONS THAT WILL LATER KILL MILLIONS OF INNOCENTS!!"

Master Gru: "That's what we do, we raise our empire"

Master Gru leaves the cell

The next day...

Ob: "It has been three months on earth by now..."

Miracle: "We will go back to them, I believe that"

Ob: "I miss Tracey by now"

Miracle: "I miss Emma too..."

Both of the cells were opened by dominarian guards

They enter Ob's cell and Miracle's cell

They use a device with a sting and injected Ob with it made him fall asleep instantly, they untied him and lifted him

They were about to inject Miracle, as Miracle was getting ready to deflect the device, master Gru stepped in and said: "What are you doing? He's a fucking deflector don't inject him with that"

The dominarian: "Then what are we supposed to do?"

Master Gru: "We return to the old times, beat him till he's knocked out"

Master Gru smiles to Miracle and leaves

The dominarians started beating Miracle on his face hardly

Blood is going out of Miracle's face profusely

Miracle faked that he's knocked out

As the dominarians unchained him he opened his eyes and angrily shaped his hands as swords and cut through them opened

The cell is red because of the dominarians blood

Miracle realizes he has to save Ob, so he rushes outside only to see Ob is tied up in front of a huge crowd of dominarians with a lot of dominarian bodyguards everywhere

Miracle stays hidden and watching the situation

Master Gru: "WHERE'S MIRACURO?"

A dominarian: "We checked in there, the guards were found dead and no sign of Miracuro"

Master Gru in anger: "AUGGH! FIND HIM!"

The dominarian: "What about Ob?"

Master Gru: "Return him to his cell until we find Miracuro, the execution will happen on them both at the same time!"

Miracle feels better knowing that his friend will remain alive for now and then he leaves the place disguised

Two days passed...

Security is very tight

Miracle is hiding between the buildings, keeping the distance out of the prison

Master Gru in his office...

Master Gru: "ASSIGN EVERY DOMINARIAN TO FIND THAT SON OF A BITCH, WHOEVER FINDS HIM, will have a very nice prize from me, and keep the guards around Ob's cell, we expect an attack to free his friend"

Miracle...

Miracle enters a place trying to find anything that can help him

An old dominarian finds him

The old dominarian: "Stand where you are, turn around"

Miracle turns around and looks at the man

Miracle is surprised after seeing that old dominarian

Miracle: "My trainer?"

The trainer looks at Miracle and says: "Miracuro?"

Miracle: "Yes, it is me"

The trainer: "Where have you been?"

Miracle: "It's a long story, do you know the prophecy of the True King?"

The trainer: "I've always knew you are that kid"

Miracle: "Why didn't you say anything?"

The trainer: "I was threatened by master Gru that when I find that kid I must tell so that he can kill him"

Miracle: "Why is he denying that?"

The trainer: "It's because he has a big plan of ruling Dominara and he's nearly done"

Miracle: "I need your help"

The trainer: "I can't help with this war, as you see, I am old I even lost my ability to fly"

Miracle: "It's okay I don't need super powers I only want you to shut down the security systems of the prison, to allow me to save my friend"

The trainer: "Who's your friend?"

Miracle: "Ob"

The trainer remembers when Miracuro smashed him into the wall when they were kids

The trainer: "This is unpredictable"

Miracle: "Do you have something sharp?"

The trainer: "I have a sword"

Miracle: "Good, give it to me"

The trainer: "You know it won't damage anyone"

Miracle: "I know just hand it to me"

The trainer gets the swords and throws it to Miracle

Miracle catches it and breaks a bottle of the dominarians poison on the blade creating a weapon that is capable of killing a dominarian

Miracle: "Thank you my trainer"

Miracle and the trainer leaves the place heading to the prison

After reaching out the trainer: "Look at this red lamp, when it's light go off you enter the place and don't hesitate"

Miracle shakes his head up and down

The trainer enters the place unseen by the guards moving in the halls disguised as a guard and hides his face

He reaches the security room and sees a guard in there

The trainer breaks his neck

The trainer: "Looks like I didn't lose it all"

The trainer shuts down the security system

Miracle outside saw that the lamp went off

Miracle charged a sprint across the prison's gate, he countered two dominarians, quickly he cut off one of them's leg using the sword and pushed the other away then punched off the head of the fallen dominarian splitting off his head completely then the other dominarian attacks him but Miracle quickly stabs him in the heart

Miracle continues to the hall of Ob's cell

Miracle entered the first hall, his eyes burning with rage

The dominarians filled the place, dozens of them, bare hands and wild eyes

They roared and rushed at him

The first one came swinging, Miracle ducked and stabbed him in the chest The dominarian fell dead

Another leaped from the side, Miracle turned quick, cut his arm off, and pushed him to the ground

A third tried to grab Miracle from behind, but Miracle slammed his elbow back and then cut his throat wide open

The hall became chaos Bodies falling, blood spraying

Two dominarians tackled Miracle at once, pinning him against the wall He growled, pushed them away with all his strength, then split one open from shoulder to waist and punched the other so hard his skull cracked

More came Miracle kicked one in the stomach, his body flew back and smashed on the stone floor Another jumped at him, Miracle caught him mid-air and stabbed through his chest, then threw the body aside

The hall was painted red

From the far end, a massive juggernaut stepped forward, taller and stronger than the rest, scars all over his body

He cracked his fists and smiled at Miracle

Miracle dropped his sword and jumped towards the juggernaut

The juggernaut is trying to land punches but Miracle is dodging them all until the juggernaut actually landed a punch on Miracle's chest throwing him away

Miracle smiled and speed runned towards the juggernaut and punched him several quick punches on his ribs

The juggernaut is tried to punch him but Miracle dodged it and punched him on his chin throwing him middle air then he flew, grabbed the juggernaut and smashed him to the ground

Miracle stood above him and started landing punches on his face

The juggernaut took a chance and tried to hit Miracle with his forehead on Miracle's nose but Miracle deflected it leaving a crack on the juggernaut's forehead

Miracle took the chance and punched him on his forehead's crack using his elbow multiple times in anger cracking it more

Miracle inserted a finger inside and grabbed the juggernaut's part of his brain out murdering the juggernaut immediately

Miracle stood up as a winner, a great warrior

Miracle reached Ob's cell and opened it

Miracle took the keys of the chains from the dead guard's body and untied Ob

Miracle: "Come on quickly we must get out of here"

Ob: "What about the cameras and the alarms"

Miracle: "None of them worked, we disabled them"

Ob: "Who's we?"

The trainer is outside of the cell

The trainer: "Come on Ob let's go there is no time for this"

Ob is surprised by seeing his old trainer

They all leave the prison leaving every hall covered with blood and bodies of the dominarians

Miracle, Ob and the trainer enters the trainer's safe house

Miracle: "Who can we trust to tell that he won't be one of master Gru's men"

The trainer: "We must reach everyone, every dominarian must know that you are the true king, you'll have supporters that will stand with you"

Ob: "How can we reach everyone?"

The trainer: "There is a base in the center of Dominara that has a connection to all of the Dominara devices"

Miracle: "How can we reach it?"

The trainer: "My son 'Zorath' works in there I'll contact him to help us"

Miracle: "Okay, in the mean-time we have to rest because tomorrow is gonna be a looong day"

After a few hours...

Ob wakes Miracle up

Ob: "Get up, Zorath is almost done"

Miracle gets up

Ob: "Prepare a nice speech introducing yourself in it and expose Gru"

Miracle: "Okay"

The trainer: "Come on we have to go now"

Miracle, Ob and the trainer gets out of the house

The trainer is moving and Miracle and Ob are following him

They finally reached the center and enter it

Zorath welcomes them and escorts them to the room

Zorath: "Okay, when I push that button you will be broadcasted on every screen on Dominara, we must be quick because as soon as I start it, they will send guards in here"

Ob: "It's okay I will hold them off until Miracuro is done"

Miracle takes a deep breath and waves to Zorath to start the broadcast

Miracle: "Welcome people of Dominara, my name is Miracuro, I was sent to planet E61 in a mission to have this planet in our empire, in this journey I have learned new things, the most important is knowing that I'm the True King, I wield the all four powers combined"

The trainer looks at the window and see flying guards are heading to the center then he looked at Ob

Ob grabbed the sword and flew out of the window breaking the glass heading towards those flying dominarians

Miracle continues: "A dominarian master called Gru is already aware of that, he has followers that supports him"

Ob is in the sky cutting through dominarian guards attacking him

One of the dominarians punched him away to the ground

Ob saw two dominarians are entering the center so he flew after them removing on of them' s backbone and breaking the leg of the other then he flew back to the remaining pilots

Miracle continues: "Me and my friend Ob's trial was yesterday, we were supposed to be executed, he wants to shut us up as soon as he can so he can grow up in the position"

Ob out there dodging the pilots and lands punches on them

A dominarian attacked him but he held his hand and punched him on his ribs breaking off his lungs leaving him to die

Ob started using the technique of one punch, one kill

Miracle continues: "He has followers trying to break into our place right now as I speak"

Ob planted his hand in one of them's neck and cut through the other's chest

Miracle continues: "All what I'm ask is the support, the support for your true king, and I promise, things will change when I rule the dominarian empire"

Zorath shuts down the broadcast

Ob flies in front of the window and says: "We have to go now!"

Miracle to the trainer and Zorath: "Thank you both so much, you can't be with me anymore I don't want to cause you any trouble"

Miracle and Ob fly out of the building as they are surprised by master Gru and lots of his followers surrounding them

Master Gru in anger and deep voice: "You will regret what you've done here your whole life!"

Miracle: "Go fuck yourself"

Master Gru shouted: "ATTACK!"

The dominarians flew towards them when they were stopped by a voice shouted: "ENOUGH!"

It was the dominarian president

The president to Miracle: "You claim you're the king correct?"

Miracle looks at him

The president: "Then, prove it"

Miracle: "How so?"

The president: "A combat between you and master Gru, if you used all your powers and remarked them and win the fight, you will be the True King"

Master Gru: "What if he lost?"

The president: "He and his friends shall die as criminals and we will wait for the true king to be born"

Miracle: "I accept the challenge"

Master Gru: "Me too"

The president: "The battle starts tomorrow"

Next day in the battle field

A big metal cage with fans around it

Fans of Gru and other of Miracle

Ob is setting somewhere between the square and the fans' seats for supporting Miracle

In the other side, multiple juggernauts are setting for Gru's support

Ob: "Don't fear anything it's just a small fight, he's worth nothing"

Miracle: "You got the sword, right?"

Ob: "Yes"

Miracle: "Break a new poison tube on it again and be ready"

Ob: "Ok"

In the upper side the presidents of Dominara are setting and watching

The president setting in the middle rings the bell that announces that the battle is about to begin

Miracle and Master Gru are standing in front of each other

The president with a high voice: "We are now watching a very important event, an event that shall decide if we are about to see the True King of the DOMINARIAN EMPIRE"

The president rings the bell again and shouts: "FIGHT!"

The crowd exploded

Miracle and Master Gru rushed each other, fists slamming, the cage shaking Gru landed a punch to Miracle's jaw, Miracle stumbled but spun and kicked Gru in the chest Gru slid back, growling, and came again with a crushing elbow Miracle blocked with his arm, the bone cracking, but he pushed through and slammed his forehead into Gru's nose

Blood sprayed Gru smiled through it

"You're still weak, Miracuro"

The juggernauts pounded the cage from outside, chanting Gru's name

They clashed again Miracle stabbed with his fists like knives, cutting Gru's face, but Gru's strength was monstrous He caught Miracle's strike, twisted his arm, and slammed him to the ground The cage rattled, the fans roared

Then the cheat came

One of Gru's supporters tossed a chain through the bars Gru grabbed it and whipped Miracle across the back Skin tore, blood poured The crowd booed, Miracle's fans shouted "CHEATING!"

The presidents stood up as an objection except the one in the middle he spread his hands next to him telling them to sit back and said: "Let the fight continue..."

Miracle fell to his knees Gru wrapped the chain around his throat, choking him

Ob jumped from his seat, grabbed the sword, broke the poison tube on it, and shouted: "Miracle! Catch!"

He threw the blade Miracle snatched it and slashed the chain apart

Now the fight turned savage

Miracle cut across Gru's arm, a deep slice Gru roared, punched Miracle in the ribs, bones cracking Miracle stabbed low, cutting Gru's thigh Gru kneed Miracle in the face, blood exploding from his nose

They circled, both dripping red The cage floor was slick

The juggernauts couldn't wait anymore They stormed into the cage, swarming Miracle Four of them held him down, fists hammering his chest The sword slipped from his hand, clattering away

The sword slid across the floor

Both Gru and Ob locked eyes on it

They ran for it at the same time, the crowd roaring

Gru was faster He grabbed the blade first, lifted it, and looked at it with a grin

Gru: "So this is the thing that makes you weak..."

Ob came charging, swinging his fists, ready to smash Gru's face in

Gru turned quick and rammed the sword straight into Ob's belly

Ob gasped, blood pouring out, his body freezing

"OB!" Miracle roared, his voice tearing through the noise He ripped free from the juggernauts, rage exploding His hands became blades of flesh and steel He tore one juggernaut apart, ripped another's head clean off, smashed another into the cage wall so hard the bars bent

The crowd went silent The cage turned red

Gru stood with the sword in his hands, Ob bleeding at his feet Miracle's eyes burned He charged

Their clash shook the cage Miracle caught the sword with his bare hand, the blade slicing deep into his palm, but he held it He pulled Gru close and headbutted him again and again, blood splattering both faces He twisted the sword free, raised it high —

And stopped

He held the blade against Gru's throat Gru stared at him, defiant, waiting for the killing blow

Miracle's chest rose and fell, his whole-body trembling

Miracle realizes he can't kill, this part creates the new empire he's willing to achieve

Miracle drops the sword on the ground and says: "This is the beginning of a new era"

The presidents rose to their feet The crowd screamed, half in fury, half in worship

The president in the middle: “The prophecy is achieved; the True King is here”

The president kneeled before him, the other presidents following him then all of the crowd kneeled before Miracuro, the True King

Miracle turned, lifted Ob in his arms, and left the cage

The cage fell silent

In the hospital...

Miracle: “You’ll live”

Ob: “Then why the sad face?”

Miracle: “You will be powerless”

Ob: “That’s okay”

Miracle tears up: “Your sacrifice will remain inside me for as long as I live, you will be my right hand, my friend, my family...”

Ob: “No, I wanna rest and be with my wife”

Miracle: “It’s okay you can bring her here”

Ob: “No, she wouldn’t like the place here, I promise, I will always stay in touch and visit you”

Later...

Miracle is setting on his throne

The ruler

The True King

Miracle waves his head to Zorath, Zorath starts a broadcast

Miracle: "For years, we were conquerors, we stole hope out of planets, we killed innocent people just to have their technology and resources and adding them to our empire, nobody minded those lives for as long as I can remember, I've been gifted by being the True king prophecy, not for you, but for the people that dies, histories of planets being destroyed in minutes, under my rule, all of this changes, no more killing people, no more conquering, no more steeling, no more destruction, instead of sending dominarians to enslave planets, we will send them to protect those planets, we will use our gift in protecting the weak, eliminate danger and help those in need, and we will share knowledge and experiences, this is the first rule and my first law, anyone who shall defy this will be sentenced to death"

Miracle ends: "My name is Miracuro, but you should call me Miracle"

The future is unknown...

This decision is not as easy as expected

Miracle will face a lot of challenges

A long journey of a warrior that lasted for earth years and just a few dominarian days.

learned a lot of lessons and changed himself and broke the loop of killing then returned to his home planet to change them all and teach them something.

A small decision of sending him to the planet changed the future of Dominara for years

The question is: Do you trust Miracle? Because I do
